

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2662

Married at First Sight Chapter 2662-Kevin pulled Liberty's suitcase and led Liberty away. As he walked, he said, "Sister, I have reserved a private room in the hotel and have reserved the menu. We can eat when we get to the hotel. Let's go eat first."

The house he bought in the Yuvinn villa area had not yet been renovated and couldn't accommodate Liberty. Moreover, Liberty would not live in his private villa.

He could only arrange rooms for Liberty and her group at the Fortress Hotel.

Liberty said, "Kevin, I'm sorry to bother you."

Kevin said, "No trouble; we are all our own, so why bother? In Jensburg, Sister, if you encounter any difficulties, you can tell me. If I can help, I will definitely help you. If I can't help, I will find a way to find someone to help you."

Liberty smiled and said, "I'm just here to inspect the market. I need you to give me some suggestions and opinions."

Kevin said, "That's no problem. Sister, if there's anything you don't understand, just ask me."

The entertainment reporters saw the scene where Kevin was escorting Liberty and her group out of the airport and secretly took pictures of it.

For entertainment reporters, it was also news.

Kevin had been pestering Hayden, and Hayden seemed to have been swayed by him. Unexpectedly, now the entertainment reporters could see Kevin and a young woman walking together, and the two of them were talking and laughing. Also, Kevin was even more considerate and helped the woman drag her suitcase. That woman was very beautiful and had a very good temperament. They didn't know which family she was from.

After the entertainment reporters recognized Kevin's identity and secretly photographed the scene, they wanted to follow Kevin and secretly photograph Liberty's frontal view at close range. They were afraid of alerting Kevin, so they couldn't even keep the footage they had just secretly photographed, so they had to give up.

As long as Kevin couldn't make mistakes, that was fine. They couldn't go wrong.

In Jensburg, Kevin was the public enemy of many young women. He often dragged Hayden into the headlines of the entertainment pages. Who didn't recognize Kevin's face?

On the way Kevin took Liberty back to the Fortress Hotel, the entertainment reporters exposed the news.

Sure enough, the gossip news related to Kevin quickly hit the hot search list of Jensburg Entertainment Edition.

Hayden, who was entertaining clients for dinner at the Greenrest Hotel, saw this hot search. To be precise, it was her secretary who received the message first, and then the secretary quietly showed her the trending news.

Hayden glanced twice and stared at the secretly photographed photo.

Kevin was photographed from the front, while Liberty was only photographed from the side.

The secretary looked at Hayden carefully.

The hotly searched title was: 'Mr. York finds a new love, but Mr. Queen is abandoned?'

Abandon the big-headed guy!

Hayden coldly ordered her secretary: "Suppress this hot search. That woman is Serenity's biological sister, Liberty. Kevin has already told me that he went to the airport to pick up Sister Liberty."

The secretary said, Oh, and hurriedly went to deal with the matter.

Fortunately, there was a misunderstanding.

Serenity was the eldest mistress of the York family and the eldest sister-in-law of Kevin, and Liberty was the eldest sister of Serenity. She was also very respected in the York family. These entertainment records were made up randomly without being clear.

If Zachary knew this news, it would be unlucky for those reporters to expose it.

After Hayden asked her secretary to handle the hot search, she sent a message to Kevin and asked Kevin, "Are you back?"

When Kevin received her unsolicited message, he felt as if he had won a big prize. He couldn't help but grin, and then quickly replied to Hayden, "Come over in an hour and join us for dinner?"

Hayden told Kevin that she was full and couldn't eat anymore.

However, she could go over and say hello to Liberty.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2663-After thinking about it, Hayden decided to wait until Kevin came back before telling him about the hot search.

Anyway, she had asked her secretary to handle it, and the hot search would be posted soon.

Not only did Hayden's secretary deal with this matter, but Kevin's secretary also immediately dealt with the hot search matter after learning about it.

That hot search didn't even stay on the list for a few minutes before disappearing.

Over in Wiltspoon, Serenity, Zachary, and Sonny actually stayed at Lewis's house for dinner. After knowing that Liberty had arrived safely, Serenity told Duncan the news and said to Duncan, "Brother Duncan, my sister will call you when she gets back to the hotel."

Duncan, who was sitting in a wheelchair and being pushed by Zachary, smiled and said, "I know, Liberty sent me a message."

Serenity smiled. "That's good. You two can solve your own problems. Sonny, come down and take a walk. Don't let Uncle Duncan hug you all the time."

Duncan said, "It's okay; I just like the feeling of Sonny sitting in my arms."

He said that he would treat Sonny as his own.

Sonny still got off the ground, and he said, "My aunt always said to take a walk after dinner; what can I do?"

Duncan: "Can live to be 99."

Sonny said, "Yes, yes, that's it. I don't want to become a fat man. I will meet Titus during the New Year. If I grow into a fat man, Titus will laugh at me."

Sonny also loved faces.

Duncan said, "If you grow fat, you might be able to defeat Titus. You can use your weight to suppress him."

Sonny: "Auntie, can I win like that?"

If he could defeat Titus, he could have a winter vacation.

Zachary smiled and said, "Just listen to your aunt's lie to you. If you become fat and are not flexible enough, you will lose miserably. If you use your weight advantage to suppress the enemy, that is when the opponent is particularly weak. Is Titus weak?"

Regardless of who Titus' master was or who the old miraculous doctor's old friends were, Titus was far superior to an ordinary person who had practiced martial arts for ten years.

Zachary didn't tell Sonny that Titus was very good in school and had innate advantages. He was a good martial artist and excellent in all aspects; otherwise, he wouldn't have been chosen by Dr. Carden and accepted as his disciple.

To prevent Sonny's self-confidence from being hit.

Only when there was someone to compete with would Sonny get better and better.

Sonny: "Auntie, did you lie to me?"

Everyone laughed.

Sonny said, "My aunt was led astray by my uncle."

Zachary: "How could it be that your uncle led your aunt astray?"

“My aunt is with my uncle every day, and it was my uncle who misled me.”

Zachary was speechless.

His cell phone suddenly rang.

He stopped to answer the phone. The call was from Josh.

Not knowing what Josh said on the phone, Serenity noticed a look of fierceness in Zachary’s eyes and guessed that something was going on.

After ending the call, Serenity asked him, “What did Josh say?”

Zachary said, “He didn’t say anything. He can solve any business issues.”

He would return to work at the company the day after tomorrow, ending his marriage leave.

Serenity too.

Seeing that Zachary didn’t mean to say anything, Serenity didn’t ask any more questions.

If Zachary didn’t say it, it’s not important.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2664-Serenity couldn’t help Zachary with his business matters now.

After wandering around for a while, Serenity got tired, so Zachary took her and Sonny out of the Lewis family villa and returned to the big villa where he lived before marriage.

Since the wedding leave was about to end, the couple had to return to their normal lives. In order to facilitate commuting to and from work, they decided not to live in Wildridge Manor.

As soon as they entered the house, they heard Grandma May’s angry voice.

The couple looked at each other. They didn’t expect to see Grandma May when they got home.

“Grandma.”

Sonny was very happy when he saw Grandma May. He left Serenity and Zachary and ran to Grandma May.

Grandma May smiled and opened her arms, waiting for Sonny to run over and plunge into her arms.

“Brother, sister-in-law.”

In addition to Grandma May, there was also Evan in the room.

Serenity heard Grandma May’s angry voice, which was Grandma May scolding Evan.

They didn’t know why Evan angered Grandma May.

After calling grandma, Zachary pulled Serenity to sit down and asked Evan, “Are you making grandma angry? We heard Grandma’s angry and cursing voice while we were at the door of the house.”

Evan looked helpless and aggrieved.

Seeing this, Zachary guessed what was going on. He reached over and patted his brother on the shoulder without saying anything else.

With Sonny present, Grandma May said nothing more about Evan.

Seizing the opportunity, Evan ran away quickly.

Grandma May didn’t leave him alone; she just hummed twice.

Evan understood what Grandma’s two groans meant. He could escape, but the monk could not escape the temple. Unless he completely broke away from the York family, that would be impossible! He doesn’t want to be an unfilial son or grandson. Sometimes he would go out of his way to make Grandma scold him.

As someone who is nearly 30 years old and still has his grandma scolding him, that is also a kind of happiness.

....

Farrell family.

Shiloh carried the tray upstairs and knocked on her father's door.

Holden was so embarrassed that he didn't eat or drink all day after Matriarch Farrell went out.

Of course, Matriarch Farrell knew that her husband had lost face and had resentment in her heart. After she returned to the company, she didn't care if her husband refused to eat or drink. She pretended not to know and let him go without eating or drinking to see if he could insist on starving to death.

In fact, Holden did not want to go on a hunger strike to protest, but he was beaten so severely that the pain made him unable to eat. He laid in bed all day without eating or drinking.

Erika just came out of the room and saw Shiloh knocking on Holden's door. After a while, Holden opened the door for Shiloh, and Shiloh went in with a tray.

The door closed immediately.

Erika curled her lips and saw the Second Young Mistress, Anya, also coming out of the room. She said to Anya, "Shiloh went to bring food to Dad. She's really filial."

After Shiloh was also punished, Erika felt that the bad breath she had been holding in her heart had subsided a little.

If Shiloh could be even more unlucky, it would be better if she completely angered Matriarch Farrell and was kicked out of the Farrell family, and she would no longer be a young lady of the Farrell family.

Anya said: "She is a flatterer now, and her parents are often coaxed into running around by her, which is too bad for Kathryn. Sister-in-law."

Anya came close to Erika and whispered, "Do you have a way to ask mom to drive away Shiloh? It's best to leave Shiloh with nothing. She is not from our Farrell family in the first place, and I don't know what my parents think. If we keep her, she will often target Kathryn and cause trouble for Kathryn.

Kathryn is our real sister-in-law. Shiloh is nothing but a servant's daughter, but now she is our equal and sometimes bullies us."

The main reason was that their husbands loved Shiloh and were partial to her. If they, the sisters-in-law, had conflicts with Shiloh, their husbands would always turn to Shiloh. They used to please Shiloh, but after their husbands cheated on them, they realized how hateful Shiloh was.