

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2677

Married at First Sight Chapter 2677-Liberty was silent for a while and then said, “When one spouse cheats on the other, there will be a rift. Even if they are not divorced, they are still living a seemingly inseparable life. They might as well get divorced.

My husband also cheated on me and domestically abused me. Now he has become my ex-husband.

Don’t expect them to change. Once there is a second time, the best thing is to leave. If you leave, you won’t be able to survive.”

Kathryn said, “My dad will not divorce; he absolutely will not divorce. He knows very well that he will get nothing from divorce, and his relatives over there will not be able to get any more benefits from my family. Maybe they got what they got before.” The good thing is that you will be forced to vomit out as much as you eat.”

With her mother’s cruel heart, she could really do it.

Kathryn said, “Anyway, our Farrell family can’t even hope to be peaceful recently. I always feel that there will be big problems.”

Liberty didn’t answer any more.

Audrey asked her to come to Jensburg quickly to develop because she knew that the Farrell family was in chaos recently and Matriarch Farrell did not have so much thought and time to pay attention to her, so that she could have the opportunity to develop and she could also take the opportunity to find out more about what happened back then.

She could also take the opportunity to win over people from the Farrell family.

Although she did not grow up in the Farrell family and did not have a career in Jensburg, she had several big backers. Her grandma was the previous head of the Farrell family. It was still possible to win over the Farrell family members and gain their support.

Kathryn said, “Liberty, you’ve just arrived, and you’ve been on a plane for a few hours. Go back and rest first. If you need anything, call me. It’s the number I gave you.”

Liberty asked her, “You won’t go back with me?”

Kathryn pursed her lips and said, “I’ll stay here for a while; it will be quiet, and my mind will calm down. When I go back, what I see is also a mess.”

“Then be careful and don’t stay too long. It’s too remote here.” Liberty warned her with a few words, then returned to her car and drove away quickly.

After Kathryn watched Liberty's car go away, she leaned on her own car and looked up at the black sky.

She didn't know how much time passed before she heard the sound of a car and someone coming.

It's such a remote place, and it's late at night. Who would come here?

Kathryn wanted to hide, but when she thought of Pedro, she made no move, guessing that the person coming was Pedro.

It's really Pedro.

Pedro's car stopped on the side of the road, and he got out of the car and trotted over.

"Miss, are you okay?" Pedro looked at Kathryn through the light of the car lights that were still on.

Kathryn said, "I'm fine. It was a meeting with my niece. It's not a fight. What can happen?"

Pedro said dotingly, "Yes, yes, you were here to meet your niece. You asked her to meet near the cemetery late at night. Those who don't know may think that you two want to rob the tomb."

Kathryn said, "What's so easy to rob about today's tombs? They're not the tombs of rich officials and rich people in the past. They have many burial objects. Now, when a person dies, they are taken to the funeral parlor to be burned, and then a jar is put in a jar and brought to the cemetery. What's the point of such a tomb? A good thief."

Pedro smiled. "You two are not afraid of ghosts either."

Kathryn said, "What are ghosts afraid of? We don't do anything bad, and we are not afraid of ghosts knocking on the door. It's quiet here; no one is making any noise, and it's not easy to be discovered. The only ones who can see us are those sleeping in the ground. Did you see Liberty when you came here?"

Married at First Sight Chapter 2678-Pedro said, "I saw a car driving by. I didn't see clearly who the driver was, so I guessed it was her. She was really wearing makeup."

"She just put on a mask and sunglasses, and then changed her hairstyle." After Kathryn finished speaking, she said to Pedro, "Let them follow Liberty quietly, not to monitor but to get familiar with Liberty's figure. Even if Liberty is dressed, they will be able to tell she is wearing makeup because of their familiarity with her figure."

Every time I ask her out to chat, I must be responsible for her safety. If something happens to her when she goes to my appointment, Serenity and the others can tear me apart.

Also, when Liberty needs help in Jensburg, just help her secretly and don't let mom and her assistant next to her know about it."

Pedro responded respectfully, "I will. Miss, the night is getting darker and darker; go back."

Kathryn sighed. "I really don't want to go back. That home doesn't have the warmth that a home should have. It's full of intrigue, and no one is a good person."

Pedro didn't know how to answer her.

Kathryn didn't want to go back, but she had to go back.

She quickly left with Pedro.

More than an hour later, Liberty returned to the Fortress Hotel. She put on her mask, sunglasses, and wig again and took the elevator directly from the underground parking lot upstairs.

She was reluctant to use the several human skin masks Kathryn gave her.

Such realistic gadgets should be used where they are most needed, so as not to go to waste.

The Fortress Hotel was Kevin's main territory in Jensburg. She put on a little makeup just because she didn't want to alarm Kevin. She didn't want to guard against Kevin, so naturally, she didn't need a human skin mask.

After returning to her room and locking the door, she took out her mobile phone and called Duncan.

Duncan quickly answered her call.

Liberty said, "Mr. Lewis, you're still up so late?"

Duncan said, "I'm waiting for your call. You said you would call me when you got back to the hotel. I've been waiting. If I don't wait for your call, I probably won't be able to sleep tonight."

Liberty smiled. "I just returned to the hotel. I'm going to call you right away. I'm afraid you'll be impatient. I went shopping and bought a lot of things."

Duncan asked, "What did you buy?"

Liberty said, "I bought some food, drinks, and things for Sonny to play with. I also bought him a few new sets of clothes. The weather is getting colder, and he is growing up quickly. Last year's clothes no longer fit him, so I bought him some new sets of clothes."

Liberty lied, not daring to let Duncan know that she ran out alone for several hours just to meet Kathryn, and they only chatted without giving much useful information.

“I also bought myself two coats. We in Wiltspoon feel cold in the morning and evening, so we can wear short sleeves during the day. But in Jensburg, it’s more than ten degrees Celsius. I only brought an autumn coat here.”

She wouldn’t go back to Wiltspoon so soon. The temperature in Jensburg would continue to drop. She needed to buy two thicker coats.

The next day, she would take her time to purchase those items in order to avoid exposing lies upon her return.

Duncan listened to her say that Jensburg was cold and told her, “Purchase two more thick clothes. Don’t you check the weather in Jensburg before going out?”

Liberty said, “I was in a hurry to go out, and I was thinking about you, so I neglected to check the weather in Jensburg. I didn’t think about it until I got off the plane and felt cold.”

Duncan blamed himself: “Liberty, I’m sorry for making you worry.”

