

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2727

Married at First Sight Chapter 2727-“Mom, there may be an accident in this matter. Shiloh probably won’t seduce my dad.”

Kathryn said.

She was not pleading for Shiloh. If she said this, Matriarch Farrell would not doubt her.

Of course, she didn’t do this.

But she knew.

She knew everything the three sisters-in-law did.

She didn’t remind Shiloh and just let things develop.

Even thinking with her toes, she knew that this was not Shiloh’s original intention, and even Holden would not have such thoughts.

Holden was a lustful person, and the person he cheated on was very young, but he would not let him touch Shiloh. After all, Holden regarded Shiloh as his biological daughter. When Kathryn returned to the Farrell family, Holden would still be the best for Shiloh.

He couldn’t develop feelings for Kathryn, his real biological daughter. He would also help Shiloh deal with her.

Now that these two are getting together and her mother is watching, neither of them will end well.

Matriarch Farrell was livid and shouted, “I said, throw Shiloh out, throw her out! I don’t want to see her. I don’t want to see her anymore. Go, wake her up, and tell her that, from now on, she will never be the daughter of my Farrell family. She is not the daughter of my Farrell family in the first place. Her surname is not Farrell, so get her as far away as possible!”

Matriarch Farrell did not suspect Shiloh of seducing Holden. But she couldn’t accept the fact that her adopted daughter, whom she had loved for more than 20 years, was rolling with her pillow partner.

She didn't care who was right or wrong; anyway, she didn't want to see Shiloh again, and she couldn't let Shiloh dangle in front of her like before.

And Holden...

Hatred burst out from the eyes of Matriarch Farrell. She wanted to destroy Holden. After she destroyed him, he would never touch another woman again.

"Mom, don't be angry. I'll deal with it right away. Don't be angry."

Kathryn comforted Matriarch Farrell.

They needed to deal with Shiloh.

"Kathryn, don't go."

Matriarch Farrell suddenly changed her mind. She grabbed Kathryn and didn't let her go away. She shouted, "Erika, come here."

Erika quickly came over and said cautiously, "Mom, please give me your instructions."

"You take your two sisters-in-law to deal with Shiloh, do as I say, drive Shiloh out, and then have someone make a statement. From now on, Shiloh is no longer the second young lady of our Farrell family.

Shiloh is not allowed to take anything in her room except her clothes, and she is not allowed to take any valuables away. Those are the property of my Farrell family. Her car keys and bank cards will all be found for me! "

Everything Shiloh had was given to her.

Matriarch Farrell no longer wanted Shiloh as her adopted daughter, so she would naturally take back what she had given out.

She originally didn't want Shiloh to get sick so soon. After all, she had raised and hurt Shiloh for more than 20 years. She really had feelings for her, and she really couldn't bear to let Shiloh return to her family of origin.

So she kept Shiloh. If Kathryn had to deal with it in the future, she wouldn't feel bad if she couldn't see it anymore.

But after something like that happened, even if Shiloh was a victim, she could no longer tolerate Shiloh staying.

Just seeing Shiloh reminded her of the erotic scene she had seen. They both opened the door and went in. The two of them were still intoxicated. The scene was like a sharp knife, ruthlessly gouging Matriarch Farrell.

Her most beloved adopted daughter and her pillow...

No matter how shameless Matriarch Farrell was, she couldn't accept this reality and couldn't bear the double blow.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2728-“mom.” Erika asked carefully, “Do you really want to do that? Don't wait until Shiloh wakes up and listen to what she has to say?”

Matriarch Farrell glared at Erika and said, “Why are my words useless now? Just do whatever I tell you! Go and do it right away. If you don't do it, pack your things and get out!”

Erika was startled and quickly responded: “Mom, I'll go; we'll do it right away. Don't be angry. It's not worth it to ruin your health.”

Erika winked at the two sisters-in-law and signaled them to follow her to deal with Shiloh.

The butler went up to the second floor. He never dared to say anything. He heard the angry roar of Matriarch Farrell.

After the three young ladies walked away, Kathryn also saw the butler.

“Mom, don't be angry; drink a glass of water first.”

Kathryn brought the water glass to Matriarch Farrell and asked her to drink half of the glass. After putting down the water glass, she saw that her expression was still so angry, so she had to go to the Butler and ask in a low voice, “What's wrong?”

“Miss, Miss Hunt had a car accident on her way back. Her car was knocked over and caught fire. The car was destroyed, and everyone died.”

“What!”

Kathryn's expression changed drastically.

The Butler quickly explained: "Miss, Miss Hunt is fine. She left in Mr. Queen's car. Her bodyguards were also drunk and were not suitable to drive, so she asked our bodyguards to help drive her car back.

The car that was destroyed belonged to Miss Hunt, but the person who died was ours."

The Butler glanced at Matriarch Farrell a few times and whispered to Kathryn, "Miss, do you want to tell her about this?"

When she heard that Liberty was fine, Kathryn's face became a little better. She whispered, "I will look at the situation and tell my mother later. Have you sent someone to deal with the car accident? Who died? Inform his family members to come over, and the compensation that should be paid must be paid."

The Butler replied in a low voice, "I have sent someone to deal with it. The man's parents are dead, and he has a younger brother who just graduated from college and also works in Jensburg."

Kathryn said, "Well, notify his brother to come over."

The Butler nodded, "I'll contact his brother now."

The Butler looked at Matriarch Farrell again, hesitant to speak.

Kathryn ordered in a low voice, "Let them go back first. No matter what happened tonight, whether they know it or not, they are not allowed to tell anyone."

"Okay."

In fact, the butler still hadn't figured out what was going on upstairs.

Why was Matriarch Farrell so angry?

Just now, Butler heard Matriarch Farrell say that she wanted to drive Shiloh out.

Let Shiloh return to her original family.

Matriarch Farrell had always loved Shiloh, and after Kathryn returned, she was reluctant to let Shiloh leave.

She got so angry tonight, insisted on driving Shiloh out, and said she would confiscate everything Shiloh owned. What mistake did Shiloh make?

Didn't Shiloh bring Holden food upstairs?

What could happen?

The Butler didn't dare to ask.

He would do whatever Kathryn told him to do.

After the Butler left, Kathryn first called Liberty, asked about Liberty's situation with concern, and then apologized to Liberty.

Liberty said understandingly, "Miss Farrell, deal with family matters first. That bodyguard died because of me. When his family comes to help him with his funeral arrangements, I will also go over to thank his family, express my guilt, and give his family compensation.

If my bodyguard hadn't been drunk and unfit to drive, and I asked the Butler to help me arrange for him to drive, he wouldn't have had such an accident."

Kathryn said: "This was an accident, not your fault."