I am a quadrillionarire chapter 2779-Lu an agreed to David's proposal, so he stopped ghting and quietly waited for Elora's restoration to complete.

He wanted to torture David to death in front of Elora but also to get Elora and completely relieve his obsession.

Leila was just the starting point for Lu an.

From then on, the world would be his oyster.

The entire universe was his stage.

After fusing his souls, Lu an had the con dence to conquer the universe.

There were higher mountains above Overlord Realm waiting for him to climb.

Time passed bit by bit.

Suddenly, a strong light burst out from the planet where Elora was located.

They knew that Elora's restoration had reached its nal moments.

A bolt of lightning appeared out of thin air and struck the light.

Crack!

This was a tribulation.

An Overlord's body needed to undergo the baptism of a heavenly tribulation before it could be completely restored.

No one could help during the process.

If someone assisted Elora in enduring this challenge, her body's restoration process would remain incomplete, and she would be unable to continue strengthening herself and making breakthroughs in the future.

Elora had to bear the tribulation herself.

Crack!

Another bolt of lightning struck Elora.

She closed her eyes and silently endured the baptism of the tribulation.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

More lightning appeared.

The others watched this silently.

Although David was worried about Elora, Sylvio had told him in advance that Elora must endure the tribulation herself. No one could help her, nor could she use any treasures.

The power of the heavenly tribulation was awesome.

So, even if David was worried, he could only be a bystander and not intervene.

Otherwise, Elora would never be able to make progress in the future.

Countless lightning bolts struck, one after another, hitting Elora accurately.

It was unknown how long it had been.

Elora's body exuded a dazzling golden light when the last ash of lightning

Her restoration was completed.

It only took a while for Elora to master her new body fully.

"Elora's restoration is successful. Are you ready to die?" Lu an looked at David and asked.

may not be able to kill you," David replied casually.

"Lu an, I said, even if you are a Heavenly Overlord, you can't kill me, although I

With his Level 6 Cloning, he was genuinely not scared of Lu an.

disdainful.

"Hahaha! You want to kill me with your twenty ant-like clones?" Lu an looked

At the same time, the energy in his body began to become violent again.

He could not wait to kill David in front of Elora.

When he needed more strength, he would choose to make himself go berserk.

Lu an could control his own body after fusing his dual souls.

Then, he would recover when it was not needed.

If Sylvio had not stopped him the last time he went berserk, Leila might have been in a terrible situation.

At that time, once Lu an went berserk, he could not recover on his own and had to rely on stronger external forces.

David felt the change in Lu an and no longer hesitated.
