I am a quadrillionarire chapter 2786-Fortunately, they were far enough away to avoid injury. Elora, Valentin, and Drogo would surely have perished if they had been at the center of the explosion. Sylvio, at the very least, would have suffered severe injuries. Following the initial shockwave, subsequent waves followed, leaving the four of them to gaze toward the battle eld in unison. Valentin and Drogo's eyes re ected sheer terror. As Ancient Overlords, they found themselves entirely unquali ed to witness a battle of such magnitude. Elora was distraught. She did not know how David was doing. Lu an was a Heavenly Overlord. Although David possessed the strength of a partial Heavenly Overlord and was blessed with heaven-defying Cloning, he was not a Heavenly Overlord. In Flora's mind, Lu an had a greater chance of winning. "A Heavenly Overlord is too powerful. We, the ve Leila rulers, are not even quali ed to get close to this battle. How ironic!" Sylvio said with a self deprecating look on his face.

"Sylvio, who do you think can win this battle between David and Lu an that concerns Leila's life and death?" Elora asked, staring in the direction of the battle.

"It's hard to say! Of course, I hope David can win, but Lu an is a Heavenly Overlord, and after going berserk, his strength is far stronger than that of an ordinary Heavenly Overlord. Even if David has incredible skills, he doesn't have a huge chance of defeating Lu an. It's very hard for him to hurt Lu an," Sylvio answered truthfully.

"Do you think so, too? If David loses, what will we do?" Elora looked worried. "Elora, you don't have to worry about David. It's hard for him to win against Lu an, but he can leave if he wants. With so many clones, it'll not be easy for Lu an to catch David.

Therefore, we have to leave rst. He will nd a way to leave when he wants to." Elora stopped speaking.

Her eyes were looking in the direction of the battle the entire time.

She hoped there would be a miracle. She hoped David could suddenly appear and tell her he had chased Lu an away.

Unfortunately, this could just be a fantasy.

"Let's go! Since David dares to stay and ght Lu an alone, he must have his strategies and methods. You must know that behind David is the entire Leila, and I believe fate will not give up on the countless living beings in Leila."
After Sylvio nished speaking, he took the lead and turned to leave.
Valentin and Drogo followed closely behind. They had long wanted to leave and get as far away as possible.

Heavenly Overlord Lu an was strong, but David, the partial Heavenly Overlord, was also powerful.

This was ridiculous.

On the battle eld, it was calm after dozens of loud noises.

The void disappeared, leaving only a huge black hole that devoured everything around it.

David stood weakly at the edge of the black hole, gasping for air.

His clothes were in tatters.

The clones' self-destruction would hurt anyone, irrespective of who they were.

Fortunately, he was far away and less affected.

Many clones had resisted the impact before him, so his injuries were not serious.

What really made David so weak was actually detonating the clone.
Every time a clone self-detonated, his mind power would also be affected.
Even though he had mind power different from ordinary people, after dozens of times, David would still be a little overwhelmed.
At this moment, he felt exhausted and dizzy. What he wanted right now was to lie down and have a good sleep.
However, he did not dare to do so.
He had yet to learn how Lu an was.
Although Lu an had withstood the self-destruction of dozens of clones and was at the center of the explosion, David dared not let down his guard.
He had seen the strength and defense of the powerful Heavenly Overlord.

He had never thought of it this way.

Just when David was looking for traces of Lu an, a voice suddenly rang in his

David expected Lu an to be seriously injured, but he was unlikely to be killed.

ears.

"I've got you, David. Where will you run this time?"

A hand suddenly appeared on David's chest.

He looked down.

At some point, Lu an had come behind him and penetrated his body with one hand.
