I am a quadrillionarire chapter 2790-So, of course, he needed to vent.

If he did not have the powerful body of a Heavenly Overlord, not even a speck of him would remain.

Lu an seemed as if he was going to win.

He was not bothered by David when he did not have any clones.

It would be the same even if he had the Evil-Splitting Sword.

Since there were no clones between them, Lucian managed to get very close.

Suddenly, a gure appeared in front of Lu an, blocking his way.

Lu an was stunned for a moment. Then he smiled when he saw there was only one clone.

Lu an.

So, he decided to run straight into him.

He was not bothered by a single clone.

Even if the clone self-destructed, it would only aggravate his injuries, and he would not die.

If he did not die, then David would be the one who would.

However, David's clone did not self-destruct this time. Instead, it rushed toward

When the two sides were about to come into contact, a hammer with a blue halo appeared in the clone's hand.

Then it hit Lu an with all his strength.

from the auction in Star Kingdom.

It was no ordinary hammer, but the God of Thunder Hammer that David bought

It was also one of the top three Ancient Weapons required for the ultimate evolution of the system.

Since the system was calling it an Ancient Weapon, its power certainly could not be underestimated.

The main reason was that he had never encountered a strong enemy.

David had not used the God of Thunder Hammer since he got it.

Now that he had encountered the strongest enemy in his life, David would use all of his means to deal with him.

The God of Thunder Hammer came in handy at this moment.

Crash!

A loud sound.

With Lu an and the clone going against each other, one could imagine the force of their collision.

hammer, he thought he could knock it away.

ying backward.

lled with

When Lu an's extremely con dent Heavenly Overlord body collided with the

However, the result was unexpected.

At that moment, his brain buzzed and went blank.

Lu an felt a huge force on his body, and he was sent

"Pfft!"

One must know that he had endured dozens of clones self- destructing around

The intense shock made Lu an spit out a mouthful of blood essence.

him without ever vomiting blood.

However, he was vomiting blood after the collision just now.

The two sides collided violently.

Lu an kept retreating after being hit.

The partial Heavenly Overlord clone could not withstand such a massive impact

Then the clone holding the Hammer disappeared immediately.

force.

The Hammer also ew back and returned to the hands of David's main form.

After a while, Lu an nally came to his senses.

He was next to David, but now, there was a distance between them again.

Wanting to catch David had become a luxury again.

After this collision, his injuries worsened again. Lu an was instantly grief and anger, causing him to roar on the inside.

'Why?

'Why is this happening?

'Why am I being suppressed by a partial Heavenly Overlord even though I have become a Heavenly Overlord?'

However, it was not over yet.

A golden light ashed and penetrated Lu an's body again.