An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1950

Chapter 1950

The weather was very cold at night, and the cold wind blew so hard that people's faces hurt.

During the day, it becomes extremely hot, like being roasted on a fire.

Crack an egg on the rocks and it'll be cooked in a minute.

Most people simply cannot stand this extreme environment of alternating hot and cold conditions.

Even if sufficient supplies are prepared, they can barely meet survival needs. The real test is a person's willpower and the body's ability to withstand stress.

dustin, Margaret and his party followed the map drawn by Feng Yao and moved forward at a constant speed.

From dusk to dawn, from dawn to dusk.

Due to the large number of people, the team did not move very fast. Fortunately, because Margaret was well prepared and the people he led this time were elites, even if they encountered some minor troubles, they could be solved quickly.

At night, the moon is dark and the wind is high.

Margaret commanded the team, selected a suitable location, and began to set up camp.

After traveling for so long, everyone is already exhausted physically and mentally. They need a good rest tonight to regain their strength.

After the tent was pitched, Margaret first ordered the chef to start cooking.

Two top chefs, plus a dozen back-of-house chefs, quickly started to get busy.

More than a hundred people were also eager to see through it.

Although the two-day trip to the desert was hard, it was so refreshing to be able to eat a delicious meal and drink a few sips of wine when I was tired.

In a big tent.

After Dustin, Margaret, and Leo Alexander had had enough wine and food, they sat around and began to discuss follow-up matters.

Because of the cold weather, a bonfire was lit in the tent.

"Ms. Li, our process has been very smooth so far." "If nothing else happens, we will probably reach the edge of the oasis tomorrow afternoon." "

But it is worth mentioning that there are frequent sandstorms there, so we still have to be more careful."

Leo Alexander pointed to the map on the table . , briefly explained the situation.

"Well, I understand. Thank you for your hard work, Captain Leo. You can go and rest first." Margaret nodded as a response.

"Miss Li, good night."

Leo Alexander nodded slightly, then glanced at Dustin who stayed in the tent. Although he was unwilling to do so, he could only say goodbye and leave.

"Dustin, you can sleep here tonight, the floor has been prepared for you." Margaret said suddenly while drinking tea.

"Ah?" Dustin was startled: "Is it inappropriate for a man and a woman to live together in the same room?" "

What's inappropriate? I won't eat you."

Margaret rolled his eyes: “Besides, you But of course my personal bodyguard must protect me at all times. I am a weak woman, what should I do if I encounter danger at night?” ” dustin’s mouth twitched, and he was speechless for a moment.

Weak woman?”

Although Margaret looks weak, she is actually a female master, and she is also proficient in various magic arts.

Not to mention ordinary warriors, even a master-level powerhouse like Desert Dragon Billy Ruso is probably no match for him.

“Okay, don’t worry about it, go to bed quickly, we have to get up early tomorrow.”

Without waiting for dustin’s response, Margaret took off his coat, revealing his graceful figure, then quickly retracted into the sleeping bag, and began to close his eyes to rest.

dustin had no choice but to make do with it for one night.
