

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1999

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1999

Chapter 1999

However, the bronze door was broken but not broken.

“Hey! It’s pretty tough!”

Billy Ruso raised his brows, increased his strength again, and punched the bronze door again with another punch.

“Boom~!!”

accompanied by a huge roar.

The solid bronze door finally fell apart, revealing the dark entrance inside.

“It’s broken, it’s broken! It’s finally broken!”

“As expected of Senior Billy, he is indeed amazing!”

Seeing this scene, everyone couldn’t help but look overjoyed.

This Qingmen gate is so strong that it cannot be broken open unless it is a martial arts master.

“Go in and take a look!”

Margaret gestured.

The people in front immediately lit torches and walked into the palace cautiously.

This so-called palace, in preparation, should be a royal mausoleum.

No one knows what mechanism is hidden inside. If it is accidentally touched, one may be killed on the spot.

“Hoo~!”

At this time, a gust of wind suddenly blew from the palace.

Wherever the strong wind passes, smoke and dust rise everywhere.

The torches in the hands of the first few people went out with a “swish” sound.

The moment the strong wind hit, everyone smelled a strong fishy smell, like the smell of rotting fish and shrimps that gave birth to maggots.

“It stinks! Why does this horse-riding smell? It’s so disgusting!”

The sudden stench made everyone cover their mouths and noses subconsciously.

At this time, Dustin seemed to have noticed something.

He suddenly frowned and shouted loudly: “No! It’s dangerous! Escape quickly!” As soon as he finished speaking, he saw two lights suddenly appeared in the darkness at the end of the palace. Red “lantern”.

These two red lanterns floated strangely in the air and emitted a strange light.

Just looking at it gives people an eerie feeling.

After the red lantern appeared, it approached everyone at an extremely fast speed.

There was also a “sizzling” sound mixed in, like the sound of metal rubbing against the ground, sharp and harsh.

“Retreat! Retreat quickly!”

After seeing the red lantern, Margaret’s expression changed, and she quickly ordered to retreat.

The troops were well-trained, and although they did not know the situation, they still acted according to orders.

However, everyone had not yet completely evacuated.

Two floating red “lanterns” have rushed to the palace gate.

“Whoosh!”

I saw a huge black shadow flash past.

Several members of the escort team who were unable to retreat were directly swallowed up by the black shadow and disappeared completely.

When the black shadow stopped, everyone could see its true face.

It was actually a giant black python twenty to thirty meters long!

The giant python has a single horn on its head, its body is thicker than a water tank, its body is as black as ink, and its scales are like armor.

Moreover, under the belly of this giant black python, there are two sharp black claws.

And the red lantern that everyone saw before was actually the eyes of this black giant python!

It has two claws on its belly, a single horn on its head, eyes like lanterns, and a hideous and terrifying face.

This can no longer be called a python, but a legendary dragon!