An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2006

Margaret's escort moved very quickly, and in less than a moment, the skin of the black dragon was completely peeled off.

Its inner bladder is also packed in a jade box.

Margaret had seen the black dragon's defense just now. Even martial arts master Billy Ruso's full blow could not break through the defense, which shows the tenacity of its scales.

And with the huge size of the black dragon, at least hundreds of sets of soft armor can be made.

With these soft armors, she can create an invincible personal guard.

This is not a treasure that money can buy.

"Here, this is your trophy, a great tonic."

Margaret handed the black dragon liner in the jade box to Dustin.

"This thing is of little use to me, you can keep it for yourself."

Dustin shook his head slightly, not showing much interest.

The black dragon liner can greatly improve a martial arts master, but he is now a grand master. Even if he takes this liner, the increase in his cultivation level will be very limited.

It's better to treat it as a favor and give it to Margaret, so that everything can be put to good use.

"Such a treasure, do you really don't want it?" Margaret was a little surprised.

"My evaluation is that it is not as good as the energy of the Dragon Source."

Dustin smiled lightly: "When you gather five strands of the energy of the Dragon Source, I will borrow them for you to use. I hope you will not refuse."

The energy of the source is the essence of a country's dragon vein.

With the help of Dragon Origin energy, he has every chance of impacting the supreme terrestrial fairyland!

This is his ultimate goal.

Intersecting here, a mere black dragon gall bladder is nothing at all.

"Okay, then I won't be polite to you."

Margaret didn't say much. After ordering the people to put the liner away, she followed up with an order: "Everyone listens to the order and enter the palace to search immediately. There must be no mistakes!"

"Yes!"

the guards responded.

So, under the leadership of Margaret, a group of people walked into the ancient and dark palace unimpeded.

"Senior Brother Kevin, don't be stunned, follow quickly!"

Lily Zhang reacted quickly and quickly pulled Kevin Snow to follow the team.

Although she didn't have any friendship with Margaret, because of Kevin Snow's existence, the two parties were in the same boat, so there should be no problem in taking advantage of the opportunity.

When Dustin, Margaret and his party entered the palace, all the forces seemed to have come to their senses.

All of them had solemn expressions and trembling hearts.

Dustin's shocking sword blow just now still lingers in their heads, and they can't get rid of it.

They knew in their hearts that although Dustin was still young, he was a more powerful martial arts master than Billy Ruso.

Facing such a strong man, they had no ability to fight and could only watch Dustin and his party enter the palace to hunt for treasure.

"Brother Leo, what should we do now? Are we going to give up our treasure to others?"

Staring at Dustin's back disappearing into the darkness, Thomas Grey gritted his teeth and seemed a little unwilling.

"Otherwise? What can we do?"
