

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel Online Free –

Chapter 995

Behind him were Noir, Fergus, the Black Hawk, and other martial realm experts.

The three martial realm experts from the Swallow family were slightly stunned at first, but when they recognized Andrius, they sneered disdainfully, "I wondered who it was blowing hot air here, but it turns out to be you, trash!"

"Last time, our family head kicked you into the magma. You were lucky to survive. This time, you won't be that lucky!"

The three of them exchanged sinister laughs and prepared to attack.

Capturing Andrius back to the Swallows might be a big achievement!

"Perfect!" Andrius grinned, his smile seemingly radiant but filled with an overwhelming killing intent."

Today, we'll settle old and new scores together!"

Then, he ordered Noir and the others, "Go!"

"Heh, even with more numbers, ants are still ants!"

As martial realm experts from the Swallows, the trio were arrogant. They did not take Noir and the others seriously at all.

Ants?

Noir instantly grinned and said to the people behind him, "It's time to show our real skills. Everyone, bring out your true abilities!"

Then, he took the lead and charged at the leader.

Bam!

They exchanged a palm strike, with the bald man gaining the advantage.

However, before he could gloat, another figure rushed forward. It was Fergus.

Although Noir and the others were not as experienced as the three, they had the upper hand in numbers

Thus, after a period of working together, the group gradually adapted to the trio's attacks and grew even more excited.

The bald man and his group were clearly stronger than Noir and the others, but they were suppressed due to the numerical disadvantage. They felt extremely frustrated.

Bam-

They did not dare to delay anymore and exchanged a glance, then simultaneously exerted a force to push Noir and the others back. Then, they shouted to the inner hall, "We can't hold on any longer.

Young Master, please lend a hand!"

Swoosh-

Just as they spoke, a dark figure with an overwhelming aura suddenly dashed out from the entrance like a flying bat.

Bang!

Smack!

Boom!

Chapter 995

2/2

With just a slight effort, Noir and the others were sent retreating by over a dozen steps. They barely managed to regain their footing, but their bodies continued to wobble.

In contrast, the figure dressed in a white robe stood coolly in front of the three Swallow family martial realm experts. He fanned himself with a folding fan, exuding an aura of arrogance. He was the Young Master the three mentioned, a legitimate heir of the Swallows, Osian Swallow!

"A Martial King!" Noir gasped and stared at the young man.

"You have some insight, but not much." Osian glanced at Noir and smiled mockingly. "Otherwise, you wouldn't have dared to defy the Swallow family like this. Since you're in such a hurry to die, then I'll do you a favor today and send you on your way!"

After saying that, he opened his folding fan with a snap and continued fanning.

Crack!

Crack, crack-

Noir and the others were furious at being mocked and clenched their fists. They exchanged glances, preparing to attack again.

However, just as Noir was about to step forward, a large hand pressed on his shoulder.

"I'll handle this."

Andrius' tone was calm but filled with unwavering confidence.