Married At First Sight Chapter 2865-Julian said, "It can't be said to be an investigation. I just want to know who you are. After all, you are the only woman I love. Even if I search all over the world, I will find you. Because I have your photo, it's easy to find you."

At this time, Julian said everything and didn't hide anything anymore. He had learned from Zachary's past experience and knew that when facing the woman he loved, it was better to say some things earlier. If he kept it hidden for too long, it would be difficult to end it.

Zachary and Serenity almost got divorced at first.

"After I found you, I couldn't get acquainted with you casually, for fear that you would regard me as a pervert, so I arranged for my men to pretend to be speedsters and stop my car on your way back to the hotel, putting me in 'danger' and giving you a chance to save me.

That way, if I regard you as my savior, I will be close to you and treat you well, and you will not doubt me."

Kiera glared at him and said, "Sure enough, it was all arranged by you."

Julian said, "Kiera, I'm sorry. It was my fault. I shouldn't have plotted against you like that, but I really don't know what to do to get to know you and not be disgusted by you. I have no experience pursuing wives. In fact, growing up, I rarely interacted with young women.

I can only think of the stupidest way. If you want to be angry, just scold me or hit me. Just don't ignore me."

Kiera didn't know whether she should be angry or not. She felt like she wasn't angry, but she was a little unhappy.

Kiera asked, "I thought I really did something good and saved people, but it turned out that I just acted in a play with you. Did you invite those people? Then you sent them all to the police station?"

Julian said honestly, "They are all my people. They have always been loyal to me and worked for me. They are all very skilled. But after fighting you that night, some of them were slightly injured. They were sent to the hospital afterwards.

They all say that the future young master's wife is very good at boxing and kicking and is very cruel, but you're very suitable for me. They all have a very good impression of you. I sent them to the police station, and that was for you to see. I made arrangements in advance. Kiera, I'm really sorry. I lied to you and kept it for so long.

Josh said that my emotional intelligence is too low. I admit that my emotional intelligence is really too low. I don't know how to pursue a wife. I used the stupidest method to get to know you.

In addition to being business magnates with numerous subsidiaries, our Bucham family also operates as private investigators. The individuals reporting to me are exceptionally adept at surveilling information. Our Bucham family's sphere of influence is extensive, encompassing numerous locations."

Kiera was startled and asked him quickly, "Is your family involved in gangs? It sounds like you are a gangster."

Julian said, "If we were gangsters, would we still be able to survive until now? Our Bucham family only has a strong information network and is well-informed. We can eat a lot of fresh melons every day. Therefore, if the people in Wiltspoon cannot be friends with us, they don't dare to offend us because they are afraid that we will reveal their background.

Of course, there are many people who hate us and hate us from the bottom of their hearts. They always want to find an opportunity to attack the core members of our Bucham family. That's why my subordinates say that you are very suitable for me because you are good at boxing and kicking; your family runs a martial arts gym and has many students."

The Bucham family and the Caron family became in-laws, which was equivalent to the union of two forces.

The Caron family martial arts gym had been open for so many years, and it was one of the best in Yonsburg, and its social status was not low. The martial arts students in the martial arts gym could be said to be all over the country.

People who learned martial arts were often righteous and loyal.

If the Caron Family Martial Arts gym was in trouble and needed help, even the students who had left the Martial Arts gym would come from all directions to help the Martial Arts gym if they found out.

Julian said, "But I don't value your family background. I only value you as a person. What I like is you as a person. No matter who you are or what your family background is, I will never dislike you. Kiera, what I said is true. I only love you as a person, but it just happens that your family background suits me very well."

Julian was worried that Kiera misunderstood that he was interested in her family background.
