An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2137

“Thank you Mr. Bailey for making it happen!”

Park Guochang smiled, not realizing that the danger had come, and looking triumphant.

The powerful men from various countries who were watching just watched quietly and did not stop him.

Anyway, who wins and who loses has nothing to do with them, it's just for fun.

“Hehehe... It seems that I can have a full meal tonight!” William smiled sinisterly.

His body trembled, and all the arrows behind his back broke out of his body and fell to the ground.

And those bloody wounds healed quickly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Hmph! I didn't even shoot you to death. It seems like you are quite a difficult monster to kill!”

Park Guochang narrowed his eyes and his expression became fierce.

A bullet penetrated his chest, and he was hit by more than a dozen arrows in the back. Apart from bleeding a little, nothing happened.

This vitality is simply more tenacious than a cockroach.

“Didn't anyone tell you that I am immortal?” The nails of William's hands stretched again.

“Hmph! What kind of bullshit immortality?”

Park Guochang sneered: “Don't think I don't know, you are just a vampire with a special physique and strong recovery ability, but as long as you catch your weakness, I can still kill you!”

Although he has never seen it, he has heard about the legend of Western vampires.

Just now, William was able to turn into a bat again and survived a fatal injury. There is a high probability that he is the legendary vampire.

Vampires have many weaknesses, such as being afraid of sunlight, fire, silver objects, etc.

Fortunately, the spears held by his subordinates were all made of silver, which could just restrain monsters like vampires.

“Really? Then you can try it and see if you have this ability?”

William opened his arms, as if he was coming with a horse.

“Change the gun!”

Park Guochang threw the golden spear in his hand, and then got a silver spear from his subordinate.

With a silver gun in hand, he can defeat his opponent even without help.

“Listen to my order! Pick up the gun! Kill!”

Park Guochang pointed his silver gun forward and gave the order directly.

“kill!”

Then hundreds of silver-armored guards roared angrily, raised their spears, and charged towards William.

They are all carefully selected elites from the Goryeo Kingdom, and all of them can fight one against a hundred.

Especially when charging in formation, they are even more ferocious and can stop thousands of troops.

“Come on! My food!”

William laughed wildly and advanced instead of retreating. He turned into a bloody afterimage and plunged into the crowd.

In an instant, screams, calls to kill, and curses could be heard.

William's speed was so fast that the silver-armored guards couldn't react at all.

Many people only felt a flash of blood in front of their eyes, and the next second, either their arms and legs were broken, or their heads fell to the ground.

From beginning to end, they could not clearly see William's attack movements.

It was as if a gust of wind had blown past him.

The silver armor on their bodies, which could withstand swords and guns, was as fragile as tofu in front of William's attack.

With just one touch, it completely fell apart.

The attack couldn't hit William, and the defense was like paper.

Ever since, the situation on both sides was completely one-sided.

William was like a tiger jumping into the flock of sheep, killing them everywhere without mercy.

For a moment, the stumps were all over the ground, and blood was everywhere.

"Form up! Form into defense!"

Seeing his subordinates being slaughtered, Park Guochang was shocked and angry, and quickly gave orders.

He didn't expect William to be so fast. He was like a ghost, his movements were mysterious, erratic and elusive.

If the fight continues like this, all the elite troops under his command will be wiped out in less than ten minutes.

Under Park Guochang's command, the silver-armored guards stopped charging and took out their shields, quickly gathering together to form a circular defensive array.

However, in the face of absolute strength, defense is just a decoration.
