

Chapter 9 Diana's Pov "For sure it's your decision to make. But there is one thing I'm afraid you can't refuse." Marc said behind me. "What is it?" "Mr. Reed is back. He is at the institute now. He wants to see you." William Reed, the younger brother of Professor Penny, Unlike Prot Penny who chose medicine, he is a businessman. The institute was his investment as a gift to Penny. After she passed away, Mr. Reed kept this place for her students to continue their research on difficult medical cases. If he wants to see me, I really can't refuse, "I'll go tomorrow." Early the next morning, I went to the institute accompanied by Victor. Just as William and I were chatting happily, his assistant entered the office. "Mr. Reed, Alpha Nathan just came to the institute and said he wants to visit you." "Wasn't he coming here tomorrow? Why did he suddenly arrive early?" William asked. Victor and I looked at each other, and we both had guesses in our hearts. The reason why Nathan wanted to visit William must be because he knew about the relationship between him and the Healer. He said it was a visit, but actually, he wanted to get in touch with me. As for him coming a day early, he obviously got the news that the Healer would come to the institute today. "Mr. Reed?" the assistant asked. William thought for a moment and then said, "He is the Alpha of the Dark Moon Pack after all. Let's not let him down. Go and invite him in." "Wait a minute," I called to the assistant who turned to leave. William looked at me, "What's wrong?" "William, do you remember that I told you three years ago that I found my mate?" "Of course, I remember. Speaking of which, I haven't met him yet." William looked at me with a smile. "He is Alpha Nathan, but he cheated on me repeatedly and I broke my mate bond with him a year ago !! with him a year ago." I told William what happened between me and Nathan, and he was angry about what Nathan did to me. "Mr. Reed, should I...?" the assistant asked, observing William's face. "Damn it! Get that bastard out of here, he dares to bully Diana! He's lucky enough not to be killed already!" People who didn't know William would think he was just a kind, harmless rich old man. Only those around him know that he is actually the leader mafia of the largest gang in the world, and his strength is no less than that of Marc and Nathan. William didn't have a child and had said several times that when he died, he would give his gang and all his wealth to me. We talked for another two hours, and Victor and I planned to leave. However, when I was about to step out of the institute, I saw a familiar car parked not far away. Victor followed my gaze and frowned, "Alpha Nathan hasn't left yet. It seems like he won't give up until he sees you." I remained silent. In my impression, Nathan has always been aloof and dismissive of others. But now, in order to save that woman, he was willing to lower his status and visit William, and even after being rejected, he still stubbornly waited here in person.

I thought he was irritating enough when he spoiled Zoe to the bones, but now it seems that I still underestimated how he acts when there is a woman important enough to him. When Alpha Nathan wants to pamper a woman, it will definitely make the whole world go crazy with jealousy. Fortunately, I recognized his true face a year ago and will no longer have any feelings for him. "Bring the stuff," I said to Victor. Victor took out his sunglasses and mask from his pocket and put his peaked cap on my head. In order to avoid being recognized as the Healer, this is the simplest and most convenient disguise. Victor and I quickly got into the car and drove away. Victor put his hands on the steering wheel and breathed a sigh of relief. "Nathan probably didn't notice us. I thought he was more alert, but now it seems Victor's voice stopped suddenly, his eyes turned to the rearview mirror, and he couldn't help but curse under his breath. "Fuck, he's following us!" I saw a black Mercedes-Benz chasing after our car. It's Nathan's car! I gritted my teeth and said coldly, "Get rid of him." Victor stepped on the gas, and the car speeded up instantly, enlarging the distance between him and the black Mercedes. But soon, the black Mercedes caught up again. Victor frowned and kept glancing at the rearview mirror. I was a little surprised. I never expected that Nathan, who needs a driver every time he goes out, would be so awesome at driving. After another turn, Nathan's car was almost parallel to ours. Victor sped up again in a hurry, but as if Nathan was desperate, he drifted and blocked us in front. Seeing that the two cars were about to collide, Victor could only hit on the brake and stopped. "Is he crazy?" Victor slammed his fist on the steering wheel and growled, "What now?" Our car was forced to stop by the bridge by Nathan. Another car followed from behind, probably one of Nathan's men who had been left behind. I squinted. "I'll do it," I said to Victor. "Are you sure?" Victor asked while exchanging positions with him. I didn't answer and restarted the engine. Then, the moment the Mercedes approached, I quickly backed up and passed the cars surrounding me at an extremely tricky angle. I hit the gas to the bottom, the speed of the car instantly reached 200, and I drove forward. As we passed Nathan's black Mercedes, I briefly looked at Nathan who lowered the window. Through the sunglasses, I saw his extremely sinister face. Suddenly, I felt happy. It's too late for Nathan to turn around and chase me now, and his man wouldn't even be seen now. I shook them off easily/ Watching the two black cars behind me gradually turn into black dots and then disappear, I raised the corners of my mouth and smiled disdainfully. "Idiots," I complained.

PATOLON frs The phone buzzed twice. I was driving and asked Victor to take a look at it for me. "News from Marc," Victor said. "What?" "He said that Alpha Nathan just sent him another message, saying..." Victor paused, a flash of shock flashed in his eyes, "Saying that Nathan is willing to pay 100 million U.S. dollars for you to save that woman!"
