

Chapter 2

Diana's Pov

I told Marc what happened that day.

Marc was silent for a long time.

"I know I shouldn't be - " I tried to explain, I knew Marc would be angry hearing how I made myself like this.

My phone vibrated, interrupting me.

It's a transfer from Marc.

Transfer amount...

A million dollars!

"Did you receive the transfer?" Marc asked.

"...Yeah."

"I don't mean to blame you for being with that asshole. But Diana, I hope you remember that you are our treasure no matter where you are, and the Blade Moon Pack will stand with you."

My heart soared.

Marc continued, "I'm on my way to Dark Moon Pack. I will arrive before 3 a.m. to take you home."

I took a deep breath.

With the money Marc gave me, I went to another clinic.

This time, the nurse's attitude towards me was obviously respectful, and I even got a decent ward to do the tests and get infections.

And then I called a driver and a luxury Mercedes, they also were respectful to me, unlike the drivers from the packhouse.

When I got back, the security guard at the door stopped me.

"I've never seen this car!" he yelled at me, "Do you literally know anything other than spending our Alpha's money!"

I ignored him and sent the driver off.

This is how every servant in this pack treats Luna.

They knew very well that Nathan didn't love me, so they never took me seriously.

I'm used to it.

And I will be leaving here soon.

But my nerve was poked again when I went in and saw Nathan come downstairs with his arm around Zoe's shoulders.

Seeing me, he said in a notification tone, "Zoe will serve at the packhouse, she is your maid from now on."

There was a chill in my heart.

I was used to Nathan hooking up with girls outside, but he kept them outside of the packhouse, the place I saw home.

But now...Zoe is a special case.

There were guests still in the front hall of the packhouse waiting for their limousines, and Nathan didn't mind letting everyone know he preferred Zoe to me.

I was disheartened.

"Whatever." I passed them upstairs wanting to pack up.

Suddenly, Zoe exclaimed.

"Oh my god Diana! Your pearl necklace is so beautiful!"

She reached out and was about to pull the necklace around my neck.

I subconsciously turned to the side to avoid it, but Nathan grabbed my shoulder forcefully.

"Zoe wants to see it, show it to her," Nathan said coldly.

During the tug, before I could resist, Zoe had already stretched her hand to my neck.

The necklace was pulled off, and dozens of beads rolled to the floor, making a crackling sound.

I was stunned.

This necklace is a legacy left to me by my mother.

I told Nathan the day I mated him!

But now, he destroyed my most precious thing just because his new mistress wanted to take a look.

I can't bear it anymore and slapped hard on Zoe's face.

Zoe was stunned. So did the guests around the packhouse.

Nathan didn't seem to expect that the docile Luna would suddenly resist, and there was a flash of shock in his eyes.

I knelt down to pick up the scattered pearls.

Zoe wanted to pick it up too.

"Don't touch it!" I yelled at her.

"It's just a necklace...Nathan bought me many similar styles. I can give you a new one in return."

Zoe looked at me timidly.

"New one? You'd die to make that 'new one' a legacy!"

Zoe immediately hid behind Nathan.

"Nathan...I didn't mean it."

She bit her lip, her eyes were red, looking pitiful.

It seemed like I was the bad one.

"You broke was her mother's legacy. She never let others touch it before. No wonder she was angry."

Nathan's tone was calm, his expression unchanged.

"Yeah, I'm sorry, I really don't know."

Zoe cried.

"It's okay, you don't have to be afraid of her." Nathan wiped away her tears, "As long as I'm here, Diana doesn't dare to do anything to you."

"Don't say that, Diana will misunderstand our relationship," Zoe whispered.

It's not a misunderstanding.

Zoe was Nathan's favorite mistress now.

Unlike me the bad Luna who would be angry just because someone broke my mother's last piece of legacy.

I picked up the last bead and walked towards Zoe.

I had to make her pay.

Nothing would make up for my mom's legacy, but Zoe can't get away just like this.

"The pearls are from the South Sea, and this necklace is antique jewelry, I will send you the bill later. 80 thousand would do."

Zoe hid behind Nathan, and both were not expecting me to stand up to them with such an amount.

Nathan frowned, "Why are you giving Zoe such a hard time? I can pay -"

Pang!

Nathan was knocked down with a bleeding nose.

I turned around stunned to see who punched Nathan this hard in front of everyone - my brother Marc!

It's been 2 years since I saw him, and he's just as intimate and handsome as he always was.

"Don't you dare talk to Diana like this! She is your damn Luna!"

The crowd suddenly became quiet.

Not far away, the guards Marc brought walked into the hall.

"This, this is Blade Moon Pack?"

Someone said in shock, and a heated discussion ensued.

"I heard the Alpha of the Blade Moon Pack never attend meetings like this?"

"Yeah...why did Alpha Marc come here suddenly?"

...

Nathan got up from the ground with obvious anger on his face.

"Alpha Marc, what a pleasure," Nathan kept his manner and said, "But it's none of your business how I treat MY Luna."

Marc was furious and I bet he'd beat Nathan to death. I hold his arm firmly to stop him from making a move to make this scene worse.

Marc lifted a smile to Nathan, "I just saw how 'nicely' you treat your Luna, so I suppose you have no problem Diana leaving with me?"

Marc turned to me.

"Diana, I missed you."

I could say nothing but being so heart-warmed that he drove from our pack at midnight and came so quickly.

Nathan narrowed his eyes and looked at me with a dangerous look -

"You know Alpha Marc?"

I didn't answer his question, but smiled brightly and hugged Marc.

"What's going on? Why is Alpha Marc hugging Luna from Dark Moon Pack?"

"Do you even need to ask? Shameless Diana must have betrayed Alpha Nathan and seduced Marc."

The discussion became more and more intense.

Marc glared at those people coldly, and those people immediately shut their mouths.

"Come on, it's time for us to leave," Marc said to me.

"Wait a minute." I looked at Marc, "Before I leave, I have one more thing to do."

I walked up to Nathan, with everyone watching, and said loudly,

"I, Diana Wayne of Dark Moon Pack, reject Nathan Wayne as my mate!"
