

Chapter 928 You Don't Have the Right to Mention Him

Upon seeing Liam, Baxter subconsciously recollected the events from yesterday.

That had left a shadow in his mind.

Shivering uncontrollably for a moment, Baxter swiftly attempted to compose himself and discreetly warned Kendrick, "Kendrick, this is Liam!"

After Baxter revealed Liam's identity, Kendrick showed no fear. A contemptuous expression adorned his face as he haughtily looked at Liam and said coldly, "You're Liam? Judging from your physique, I doubt you'd be able to withstand a single punch from me! Quite audacious! Do you know who I am? If you're upset about me wrecking your factory, tough luck!"

After his verbal tirade, Kendrick commanded his men to the grab baseball bats and smash everything in the factory.

This group of individuals was accustomed to behaving arrogantly in Salem, relying on the backing of the Hoffman family. After Kendrick's command, they all readied themselves to wreak havoc and cause destruction.

However, just as they did this, some of them saw

However, just as they did this, some of them saw something that appeared to be a flash before them. Then, they felt a piercing pain in their abdomens.

The next moment, they were kicked and sent flying, rendered incapacitated!

Liam, wearing a stern expression, appeared next to Julie. He raised his hand and struck once more. His movements were so rapid that everyone could hardly perceive his actions.

One by one, Kendrick's people were sent flying!

At this moment, Liam resembled a formidable King, inspiring both awe and fear.

Observing all of this, Baxter was so frightened that he swallowed hard. The arrogance he had exhibited earlier had completely evaporated.

He hadn't anticipated being wrong about Liam's strength.

Then, Doyle cast an apprehensive glance at Kendrick. He wondered whether this individual who worked for Benedict could defeat Liam!

Despite Liam dispatching his men with ease, Kendrick, remaining arrogantly composed, appeared unfazed. He eagerly removed his shirt, revealing an impressive physique!

After stretching his muscles, flexing them in the process, he disdainfully chuckled. "I didn't expect you to be this strong. No wonder the former underground king, Aikin, was willing to work for you. That idiot died because of his allegiance to you! Salem is no longer what it used to be! Now, I'm the underground king here!"

Following this declaration, Kendrick made his move.

Upon hearing Aikin's name, however, Liam momentarily became lost in his thoughts.

Memories of that profoundly tragic event from many years ago surged back to his mind.

That fateful year, the Hoffman family had faced a catastrophe. Aikin, along with a dozen men rigged with explosives, had made the selfless choice to sacrifice themselves to ensure Liam's escape.

It was a pain forever etched in Liam's heart.

Yet now, Kendrick had mentioned Aikin's name and insulted him.

Instantly, Liam's eyes brimmed with hatred. Veins bulged on his arms, his entire being becoming engulfed by anger. His aura surged several times over!

Upon seeing the fury in Liam's eyes, Kendrick grew even more disrespectful and taunted him, saying, "Useless trash! Do you think you're a match for me?"

Having said that, Kendrick clenched his fists and threw a punch, causing the onlookers to hear a rush of wind accompanying the motion of the strike.

Baxter observed this scene and felt reassured.

It appeared Liam would be no match for Kendrick.

Benedict's men truly seemed like a formidable force.

Julie and Watkins, on the other hand, appeared concerned. Despite being aware of Liam's incredible power, Kendrick was currently displaying extraordinary strength.

Furthermore, Kendrick had brought several henchmen along with him.

Just as everyone anticipated Liam's imminent defeat, however, a muffled grunt was heard.

Liam firmly held Kendrick's throat. Despite Kendrick previously appearing invulnerable, he was utterly helpless in Liam's grasp, resembling a defenseless child.

Liam's eyes brimmed with ferocity as he enunciated each word to Kendrick, saying, "Who do you think you are? Do you think you have the right to talk about Aikin?"

Having said that, Liam immediately broke Kendrick's limbs, the excruciating pain causing Kendrick to faint immediately.
