Chapter 1316

Chapter 1316 "There was an opportunity here..."

"As Andrius briefly explained the situation of the Flame Emperor and continued, for my current strength, I'm at the late-stage of the Martial God realm. I'm just one step away from entering the Martial Saint realm.?"

Hiss- Noir and the others could not help but gasp.

In just one night, Andrius was already close to reaching the Martial Saint realm! If others were to hear of such speed, it would surely be the envy of many, leaving them in awe and jealousy!

For a moment, the three of them stood there in shock.

Andrius laughed and patted Noir on the shoulder, taking the lead to walk outside. "Stop spacing out. Let's go. Now that everything is in place, we're just waiting for the final push.

"After a night of battles, the teams with uneven strengths should have been eliminated, and the overall situation should be clear now. It's time for us to shine and make our mark.

"Let's go. Our destination is the sanctuary!"

Noir and the others followed, full of fighting spirit.

Along the way, corpses were scattered everywhere, and the ground was soaked in blood. It was a gruesome and shocking sight. "After such a large-scale battle, not many teams should have survived." Andrius focused his gaze and quickened his pace.

Noir and the others solemnly agreed.

However, before they could go far, two masked individuals appeared and blocked their path. Andrius frowned and was just about to ask them a question.

Swoosh... Whoosh... The two rushed forward without saying a word.

The person on the left swooped in from a low angle, agile as a bird, and arrived at Andrius' face in an instant, unleashing a palm strike without hesitation.

The person on the right approached with an imposing aura like a soaring eagle, attacking Andrius simultaneously with the person on the left.

The only thing they had in common was the majestic aura they both exuded, indicating their strength as Martial Saints. Two Martial Saints were attacking them simultaneously!

Andrius did not dare to be careless and immediately gathered inner energy in both palms, striking fiercely.

Boom...

After a loud explosion, Andrius retreated seven steps before stopping his momentum.

"Not bad, not bad."

The two did not pursue further but

"Such progress is truly rare in the world."

As they spoke, the person on the left removed his veil. It was Old Hagstorm!

The one on the right was Old Ophis.

“Master!” Andrius could not help but exclaim in surprise, then asked curiously, “What are you two doing here?”

He thought that his master would leave Flandom after helping him refine the Dragon Flame Lotus. Unexpectedly, he met them again in the competition.

“Master...” Andrius voiced his doubts. “The Insect Ruler's foundations are in Florence and Murrfield. Why did he come all the way to Flandom?”

A cold and stern expression flashed across Old Hagstorm's face, and he snorted, The Insect Ruler didn't just come to Obaro. He has great plans too!

“As far as | know, he has already joined forces with the actual rulers of Flandom, Alexander's family! Furthermore, the other two Demon-level experts of Obaro, St. Dmitri and the dragonslayer knight, probably won't stay idle either.

“However, the Pontiff was just a pawn manipulated by others.”

It really was the Pontiff!

Andrius remembered the battle yesterday and could not help but feel a chill in his heart. As for the dragonslayer knight, with such a title, he must also be a Martial Saint expert. At the moment, many formidable individuals were gathered on the small island of Praxis.

Andrius quickly gathered his thoughts and asked, "Master, why did the Insect Ruler come all the way to Obaro to stir up trouble? What does he want?"

Old Hagstorm narrowed his eyes and said calmly, "Corpses!" Corpses! Andrius was shocked and instantly understood everything.

The Insect Ruler's greatest ability was to turn corpses into insect soldiers and command them. It was an extremely sinister yet effective method.

If two or three Martial Saints died during a battle and were refined into insect soldiers with no pain and only obedience, how terrifying would that be?

Even if there were no Martial Saint bodies, there were plenty of corpses on Praxis Island ranging from at least Martial King to Martial Emperor.

If the Insect Ruler refined all of them, it would be an incredibly terrifying force capable of turning the tide in critical moments! At that thought, Andrius' back was covered in cold sweat.

It was no wonder the Insect Ruler came from so far away. Since he destroyed all the insect soldier experimental bases in Florence, the battlefield in Praxis was undoubtedly the paradise that the Insect Ruler had been dreaming of.

"Phew..." Andrius took a deep breath and asked, "Master, do you know the true identity of the Shrouded Gate's master and her background?"

Although the master of the Shrouded Gate had saved him twice and given her name...

Andrius had a feeling that Lumi Hardin was not her real name. Her actions were also peculiar, suggesting her motives might not be pure.

Andrius could not help but fall silent.

At this moment, on Praxis Island...

There was the Insect Ruler, who had been plotting for a long time...

The Pontiff of a massive congregation...

The renowned and exceptionally mysterious dragonslayer knight...

The rising force with peculiar behavior, the master of the Shrouded Gate...

Alexander’s family, which had been planning for many years...

They were all gathered here.

Alexander’s family was orchestrating everything openly while the Insect Ruler was secretly biding his time.

The most important thing was that it was unknown whether the master of the Shrouded Gate, who was seemingly a st powersfut, ones filer or Kel reaking into the sanctuary with three people seemed almost impossible. Chapter 1318

“His figure can be found wherever there are fallen experts. I estimate that his forces have already gathered an astonishing number of insect soldiers who were originally experts at the Martial King and Martial Emperor realms.

“He’s only waiting until the final stages of the competition to reap the harvest. You must be careful.” Andrius' heart sank. Yes.

Once Martial Emperor experts were turned into insect soldiers, their physical strength and resistance to attacks would be significantly enhanced, making them hard to deal with quickly.

If surrounded by a group of such fighting machines... The level of danger would increase exponentially. If that happened, the competition would be terribly difficult.

Andrius never expected that what started as a competition for the throne of Flandom would evolve into a personal showcase by the Insect Ruler!

“Don’t worry, Andrius.” Old Hagstorm saw his heavy expression and reassured him, “Old Ophis and I will intervene and intercept the insect soldiers as much as possible. You can just stick to your original plan, but be careful.”

Andrius’ expression improved somewhat. “Thank you for your help, Master. I know what to do now.” “Mm...” After some instructions, the two groups went their separate ways.

Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm went to keep an eye on the Insect Ruler’s team whereas Andrius’ group continued to their destination.

In the middle of the square in front of the sanctuary, there stood a tall white jade statue. The statue held a model of the golden scepter of the first king of Flandom.

Behind the square was a high platform. It was the only way to the depths of the sanctuary. At that moment, Alexander defeated all the experts on the scene and stood proudly on the high platform, overlooking the world.

Seeing no one dare to fight anymore, he looked at the organizer to the side and said triumphantly, “Since no one dares to fight anymore, let’s announce the results.*

The organizer nodded and was just about to step forward and make the announcement.

Just then, a sudden change occurred.

Swoosh- A sharp whistle echoed on the square, and a silver light flashed. Then, a spear emerged. The Argentum Qilin Spear appeared from the sky, aiming directly at Alexander.

At that moment, everything lost its color. The color of the tip of the spear was the only color in the world. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

It was dazzling and eye-catching!

The momentum that seemed to break through the heavens secretly shocked everyone present. Even Alexander could not help but feel a chill in his heart.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk..." Alexander saw Andrius' group and said sarcastically, "They say that the Wolf King of Florence is cunning and invincible, but in my eyes, it's just an empty name. The competition won't be fun if you continue to hide like a turtle."

As he spoke, Andrius already reached the high platform. With a light flick of his right hand, the Argentum Qilin Spear flew into his hand.

Andrius held the spear and said loudly, “I could say the same about your family. You barely show your fangs after a hundred years. Are you already anxious before the battle is over?”

Alexander’s lips instantly twitched.

The last person who called his family cowards was already buried deep within the soil of Flandom! “| see. | see!”

Alexander’s gaze darkened as he stared at Andrius, and he clapped his hands twice.

The two groups slowly ascended the stage.

On the left, the person in the middle wore a cloak, and three strong but stiff figures followed behind. They were the Insect Ruler’s team.

On the right, the person in the middle held a broadsword, and the dragon—eyed mask on his face exuded a legendary aura. He was the dragonslayer knight.

They had indeed joined forces! Although Andrius could not see the faces of the two, he knew who they were.

Alexander also knew that Andrius had figured it out, but Andrius could not do anything as long as he did not admit it, so he smirked and said, “Do you see that, Wolf King? I’ve already subdued these two legendary teams. With the strength of your current team, you’re no match for me at all!

“The battle is already over. You’re just deceiving yourself and thinking too highly of yourself. “Hahaha...”

At that point, Alexander could not help but burst into triumphant laughter.

Andrius narrowed his eyes and said nothing.

He was in the late-stage of Martial God now and was just a step away from the Martial Saint realm, so he could clearly sense the approximate strength of every expert on the scene.

The Insect Ruler in his cloak, the dragonslayer knight with the dragon—eyed mask, and the old man beside Alexander who easily blocked his spear...

These three had profound and unfathomable auras. They were clearly Martial Saint experts. To Andrius' surprise, he did not see St. Dmitri's figure.

"Although you're the Wolf King of Florence, if you die in the arena of this competition in Flandom, not even the emperor of Florence can say anything. I advise you to be humble, young man!" At those words, he revealed his killing intent toward Andrius. It was a clear and blatant threat!

"Die? Anyone might die here today, but it won't be the Wolf King!"

A cold voice echoed throughout the venue, full of murderous intent.

Alexander was stunned and immediately looked over.

Not far away, four figures slowly approached.

It was an undisguised favor.

Chapter 1320

Chapter 1320

This scene not only confused Alexander but also left Andrius baffled.

What was going on?

The master of the Shrouded Gate led her experts and traveled thousands of kilometers from Florence just to protect him? That was even more surreal than catching a nuclear bomb barehanded!

It was more unbelievable than the Lycantroops joining an idol program!

What exactly was going on?

“Master of the Shrouded Gate!” Alexander's azure pupils dilated fiercely. After a moment, he said coldly, “Are you really going against my family?”

Luna ignored the killing intent in his tone. She pointed at the Insect Ruler and the dragonslayer knight, saying indifferently, “These two were originally outsiders, but you dragged them into this mess, so don't blame me. If they withdraw, then so will I.”

Alexander was stunned. The Insect Ruler and the dragonslayer knight were both Martial Saint experts.

The master of the Shrouded Gate specifically targeted them. Did that mean she already discerned their identities and was fearless of their strength?

Alexander was also uncertain regarding Martial Saint experts. “Heh...” Just as Alexander hesitated, the dragonslayer knight, who had been keeping low, suddenly stepped forward.

He looked at Luna and said loudly, “The master of the Shrouded Gate came all the way from Florence to slaughter our heroes. I presume you are very confident in your own strength.

“Very well. Let me test out if you truly live up to your reputation, or maybe you're just an empty name!” After speaking, the dragonslayer knight swung his broadsword and pointed it directly at Luna.

“Hyah! The sword of justice will cleanse the world of evil!” the dragonslayer knight shouted, infusing powerful energy into his sword. He rushed toward Luna with a formidable force.

Sword energy danced in the air, sparkling like a constellation.

However...

Luna remained still, her eyes showing visible contempt.

"I can't believe you dare to show off such a clumsy sword technique here." She snorted coldly and met his attack head-on.

Along the way, pure inner energy gathered in each of her hands like protective gloves.
