Chapter 1321

The dragonslayer knight originally intended to show off his might on today's occasion and enhance his reputation. Unexpectedly, Luna completely suppressed him.

Furthermore, Luna even insulted and humiliated him...

"Argh..."

The dragonslayer knight howled in anger. After deflecting Luna's strike with his sword, he started to unleash his unique skill. "Pluto's Cross Slash!"

At his words, a dazzling glow appeared on his long and wide sword. It shone like a miniature sun, making it impossible for others to stare at it.

Rumble-

After a brief accumulation of power, he slashed out a cross—shaped sword energy, sweeping toward Luna with terrifying momentum.

Along the way, the sword energy wreaked havoc, leaving deep ravines behind.

After unleashing the astonishing sword energy, the dragonslayer knight did not pause but instead followed it, intending to fight with Luna.

"Heh..." Luna let out a disdainful snort and waved her palms, weaving them into a majestic palm print with a powerful and eerie aura.

Boom The next second, the sword and palm collided.

What surprised everyone was that the dragonslayer knight's seemingly powerful sword only held on for half a second before dispersing into smoke by Luna's palm, completely shattering.

Then, Luna's palm paused for only a moment before continuing toward the dragonslayer knight.

Bam!

Thud!

Boom!

Muffled noises rang out continuously.

The dragonslayer knight had to swing his sword eighteen times before finally withstanding Luna's palm.

Despite that, he was drenched in sweat and panting heavily, clearly exhausted. He stabbed his broadsword on the ground and leaned on it to support himself and recover. His heavy gaze stared intently at Luna, afraid that she would continue to attack.

"Dragonslayer knight..." Luna's mouth curled into a faint smile as she sneered. "In my opinion, you should be called bugslayer knight from now on..."

Then, she gathered energy in her palm again and prepared to cripple the dragonslayer knight.

Swoosh...

At the critical moment, a dark shadow swiftly appeared. It was the Insect Ruler, who was wearing a cloak. Without saying a word, he lunged straight toward Luna.

After laying low in Florence for many years, he had already reached the late stage of the Martial Saint realm. In just one more step, he could ascend the Divine Steps and walk toward the heavens!
