

Chapter 1006 Negotiation

Watching Julie lost in thought and on the verge of giving up, Liam felt a surge of anxiety.

Turning to face Shayla, he spoke in a deep, commanding voice. "Shayla, stop talking nonsense!"

Liam, with his sharp intellect, wasn't fooled by Shayla's words. He sensed her ulterior motives. After reprimanding Shayla, Liam shifted his attention to Julie, adopting a softer tone to explain.

"Don't overthink it. Shayla and I are business partners. Our collaboration is solely driven by our individual interests. Everything I've done is within my control. Julie, trust me. I didn't put my life at risk. Moreover, the people I'm dealing with are from the Saint Society, the ones who ruined my family. I will confront them sooner or later, after all!"

Julie's demeanor softened slightly after Liam's reassurance.

Liam was relieved to see she wasn't dwelling on negative thoughts.

He then turned to Shayla with a serious expression, inquiring, "You have knowledge about the Rosefinch Tower. Can you provide detailed insights into Rosefinch Tower's strength?"

As the conversation delved into more serious matters, Shayla adopted a grave tone, stating, "The situation surrounding Rosefinch Tower is intricate. It goes beyond superficial factors and has strong ties to the Duncan family. More importantly, Townsend, Adamson's nephew, is the force behind Rosefinch Tower. With Adamson's influence, he has considerable power and numerous skilled individuals!"

Offering Liam a word of caution, Shayla continued, "I advise against confronting them directly. I'll handle the matter with the primogem rocks. I'll negotiate with them personally. After all, I also have a vested interest in acquiring the primogem rocks. It would be far more beneficial if we could secure them without resorting to violence!"

Considering Shayla's proposal to negotiate with Rosefinch Tower, Liam contemplated the options.

While he had a significant force at his disposal in Pleeysen, he acknowledged the formidable challenge posed by Rosefinch Tower.

So, he nodded in agreement, stating, "Okay. I'll go with you during the negotiation."

Upon learning that Liam would accompany her, Shayla's mouth curled up slightly, expressing her happiness.

Meanwhile, on the top floor of Rosefinch Tower.

An ominous-looking young man sat cross-legged on the main seat. Two maids were flirting with him, giggling.

The man was none other than Townsend Chapman.

As Townsend looked at the maids with a hint of lust, he was about to summon them closer when a masked woman emerged from the door.

The woman with the mask, of course, was Maureen, who had helped Liam in the underground battle ring.

In her hand, she held a package dripping blood to the floor.

Seeing Maureen, Townsend frowned and waved his hand discontentedly to let the maids leave.

When they were left alone, Townsend snorted coldly. "Maureen, what brought you here today?"

Ignoring Townsend, Maureen threw the package to the floor, revealing the vigorous hearts of several Primogem Warriors inside!

These hearts had been taken from Corrin and the others by Maureen.

Addressing Townsend, Maureen remarked coldly, "Haven't you been searching for Primogem Warriors' hearts? How about these?"

Hearing this, Townsend casually glanced at the hearts and then turned to Maureen. "Maureen, it seems that you have something to tell me. What is it?"

Chapter 1006 Negotiation

 +120 Points at most

Cutting to the chase, Maureen bluntly stated, "I want to exchange these hearts for a primogem rock!"

With her powerful intelligence service, she knew that Townsend had the batch of primogem rocks and that Julie needed their assistance.

Hence, she visited Rosefinch Tower to negotiate with Townsend.