

Chapter 1026 The Angry Liam

Liam's furious outburst reverberated so loudly that Shayla felt as if the Rosefinch Tower trembled slightly.

Witnessing Liam's intense rage, Shayla realized the depth of his anger and hastened to speak up.

"Liam, I recall Townsend's human trafficking network in Pleeysen. They often dispatch individuals to Invone for experiments. I suspect Asher was abducted by this group of people. Chances are, they've taken him to Invone's laboratory. This situation is dire for us. Considering the abundance of Primogem Warriors in Invone, rushing there could mean certain death for us, let alone rescuing your son! Liam, I believe we should carefully ponder our next steps and think more about this matter further!"

Shayla, aware of Liam's determination to rescue his son, reluctantly shared the harsh truth.

But watching Asher's video had completely enraged Liam. Shayla's words were almost unbearable for him to comprehend.

In a solemn tone, Liam expressed, "Shayla, I value your concern. But Asher is my son. No matter the risk, I refuse to leave him in a place where he feels frightened and faces such danger!"

Observing Liam's unwavering resolve, Shayla furrowed her brows slightly as she began to voice her persuasion. "Liam, you..."

However, Liam promptly cut her off, asserting, "I can't stand by and do nothing. You don't have to persuade me anymore!"

At this moment, Liam couldn't shake the image of Asher's sweet and cute demeanor. The mere thought of Asher enduring the cruelty of those men weighed heavily on Liam's heart, tugging at it with an invisible force.

Shayla's gaze reflected her concern, fearing Liam's impulsive rush to Invone might lead to his demise at the hands of Invone's formidable inhabitants. Indeed, Invone boasted a multitude of skilled experts. Liam, despite his recent breakthrough, really couldn't hold a candle to them.

At the thought of this, Shayla bit her lip, attempting once more to soothe Liam's nerves.

But before she could say anything, Liam spoke up. "If you're afraid, you don't have to come with me! I won't hold it against you. Don't worry!"

With that, Liam turned away from Shayla, taking Julie's hand as they departed from the Rosefinch Tower. Determined, he prepared to return to the Hoffman family's residence and set off for Invone.

As Shayla watched Liam and Julie walk away, her chest rose and fell rapidly, showing her clear agitation. It was evident that she was deeply upset by Liam's

After lingering there in a daze for a while, Shayla finally came to her senses and mumbled angrily, "You ungrateful jerk! Liam, if you want to die, go ahead! I don't care about your family affairs!"

Meanwhile, in Invone.

Under the cover of the night, Townsend arrived at the Duncan family's residence.

Behind him was a large group of people.

Among them was Tyler, accompanied by a band of fierce Primogem Warriors. They were the ones who had raided Salem's Sky Orchid Garden, resulting in Yesenia's demise and Asher's abduction.

Asher was also there.

Upon learning of Townsend's arrival, Rohan from the Duncan family personally stepped out to greet him.

During the preceding years, Rohan had diligently trained under Adamson's guidance. After a few years, he had pushed past his boundaries and ascended to the rank of a sixth-level Primogem Warrior, investing numerous resources along the way.

Remarkably, Rohan had surpassed even Townsend in prowess now.

But Rohan understood that he couldn't underestimate Townsend, despite his strength. He promptly invited

Townsend into the grand hall of the Duncan family's residence.

After instructing a servant to bring some coffee, Rohan extended a courteous greeting to Townsend before inquiring, "Is there a specific reason for your visit to the Duncan family today?"
