Chapter 1077 Bad Intentions

After forming their alliance, Santino and Leif led their teams deeper into the Myriad Beasts Valley.

Along the way, they encountered many primogem beasts.

However, these lesser beasts posed no threat to the two groups, each backed by sixth-tier Primogem Warriors.

Santino and Leif chose not to engage the beasts themselves. They left the beasts to their team members instead.

The loot collected during these skirmishes was shared equally between the two groups.

Although the two teams appeared to work well together, Santino had his own agenda.

His eyes betrayed his intentions, yet Leif remained oblivious.

Santino was determined not to let the beast crystal end up with someone as impulsive as Leif.

Just then, a piercing roar cut through the air.

end up with someone as impulsive as Leif.

Just then, a piercing roar cut through the air.

Everyone turned to see a primogem beast with glowing green eyes blocking their path. It was the Ghost Wolf!

This beast was formidable, clearly a sixth-tier primogem beast, but it was new to this level and hadn't yet harnessed its full potential.

It seemed the Ghost Wolf they encountered was the perfect prey!

Leif and Santino were thrilled at the sight of the Ghost Wolf. They quickly mustered their strength and readied themselves for the kill.

Glancing at Leif, Santino suggested in a deep voice, "How about we let a decisive blow on the wolf determine who gets the beast crystal inside? What do you think?"

Leif hesitated upon hearing this. Clearly, he was uncertain about the fight.

Noticing this, Santino added, "If you're concerned you might not beat me, I'll let you strike first. Fair enough?"

Leif's expression soured. He hadn't expected Santino to underestimate him. Yet, he realized Santino's offer was beneficial to him.

With a huff, Leif responded, "Fine! No matter what,

that beast crystal is mine!"

With those words, he charged towards the Ghost Wolf.

Clearly, Leif aimed to defeat the Ghost Wolf with a single strike and claim the beast crystal.

At that moment, Liam, keeping a low profile, frowned slightly.

He watched Santino from a short distance and sensed that Santino harbored ill intentions toward Leif. Leif, brave but lacking in cunningness, was likely to find himself in deep trouble as Santino plotted against him!

As expected, Santino followed Leif when he dashed off. But Santino didn't go all out against the Ghost Wolf. Instead, he lingered on the sidelines, in a spot where the wolf wanted to attack but just couldn't reach.

This gave Leif better opportunities to strike at the Ghost Wolf.

On the surface, it seemed that Santino's lack of strength allowed Leif to lead the attacks.

But Liam knew it was more complicated than that.

Just as Leif gained the upper hand and was about to deal a deadly blow to the Ghost Wolf, Santino suddenly sprang into action.

He pulled a weapon from his pocket.

It was a battle bow, crafted to boost combat power!

Only sixth-tier Primogem Warriors could wield such a weapon.

At that moment, Santino aimed the bow and positioned an arrow on it, its tip gleaming brilliantly.

Yet, Liam noticed that Santino's target wasn't the Ghost Wolf.

It was Leif!
