

Chapter 1088 News Of The Treasure

Liam felt resigned.

When he saw Laura's sad face, he wasn't sure how to break the news without making her feel even worse. It was a tricky situation.

After considering it for a while, Liam decided to give her a less-than-ideal explanation. He said, "I have a wife and a kid. They're currently held by the Saint Society, and I really can't focus on romance right now. Laura, I'm the first guy you've met since leaving Genesis Island, so it's natural you'd feel drawn to me. Let's just pretend today never happened. Before you know it, it'll be a distant memory."

Laura hesitated for a moment. Then, she asked, "Liam, do you have feelings for me, too?"

Liam wasn't expecting that question. Before he could respond, Laura stepped closer and, with a serious look, said, "Liam, I'm not here to break up your family. I just want to be part of it. If you agree, I'm willing to be with you even though you have a wife. All I'm asking for is a little piece of your heart."

As Liam listened to Laura, he felt overwhelmed.

Laura reminded him of Shayla. Why did every woman he met want to join his family?

Liam felt a headache coming on.

But when he saw Laura's hopeful eyes, he couldn't bring himself to refuse her.

He didn't want to push her into despair.

With a deep sigh, Liam decided to tell a comforting lie. He said, "Let's talk about this after I get my wife back. If she's okay with it, then I'm in."

Liam knew Julie would never agree.

He remembered how intense her argument with Shayla had been. It was clear she wasn't open to sharing.

Laura didn't know this.

When she heard Liam's words, her frown disappeared, replaced by a smile.

Feeling unusually confident, she said, "Don't worry. I'm sure I can convince your wife!"

Liam had barely defused the situation when Leif's satellite phone next to them crackled to life, and they heard a voice.

Liam listened closely, recognizing the speaker as Captain Rodney from Mount Moria.

Rodney's voice was clear on the phone. "Leif, we've found a big treasure, but there are others who want it! Get your team to Lotus Lake now!"

Rodney didn't know Leif's team was down to just Liam and Laura now. And he certainly had no clue that Leif had been killed by Santino's arrow.

After Rodney's message, Liam and Laura shared a look.

Laura, puzzled, asked Liam, "What now? Leif is dead..."

Liam stayed calm, looked at Leif's map, and said, "Lotus Lake isn't far from here, and clearly, there's a huge treasure. Let's go check it out!"
