

Chapter 1094 True Strength

Initially, Garrett's prowess was equated to that of a fifth-tier Primogem Warrior.

But in preparation for the covert mission, Cillian had augmented Garrett's capabilities forcefully to the sixth tier, despite Garrett's lack of awakened special power. Cillian's intention was to incite Garrett's potential awakening during his journey in the secret realm.

Liam swiftly discerned the superficiality of Garrett's strength. He was resolute in fully engaging and imparting a valuable lesson to Garrett.

Liam had meticulously devised an explanation for his own strength to address any suspicions later on. If doubts persisted, he was prepared to directly confront and eliminate those aware of his actual capabilities!

Observing Liam's steadfastness, Rodney relented and permitted him to take Laura's position in the fight.

Ultimately, Rodney remained indifferent to whether Laura or Liam would survive.

Liam was the first to step onto the lotus leaf, followed closely by the other two participants.

Representing Doug's team, Huxley Martel took the field as the combatant.

Prior to Garrett's entry into the battle, Mateo said to Garrett, "Mr. Glyn, there's no necessity to exert full effort. A lesser contender, Kolton, is present in the contest. He stands no chance of victory. Your objective should be to secure second place. I'll showcase my full capabilities in the ultimate showdown and secure first place for our team."

Although Mateo intended his words as a display of concern, Garrett interpreted them as a slight to his prowess, insinuating that he could only outshine Kolton, a fourth-tier participant.

Interrupting Mateo abruptly with evident irritation, Garrett questioned in a hushed tone, "Mateo, are you implying that I'm at risk of losing by making such remarks?"

Observing Garrett's displeasure, Mateo chose to remain silent resignedly.

After that, Garrett took his place on the lotus leaf.

Positioned on the lotus leaf, Garrett directed a mocking sneer at Liam. "I find it unbelievable that someone as feeble as you dares to join this fight. I suggest you surrender and leap off, for once the battle commences, you'll be the first one to die in my hands!"

Shifting his attention to Huxley with an air of arrogance, Garrett spoke with contempt. "Huxley, allow me to offer a piece of advice. You're aware of my father's identity, aren't you? Touch me, and when we return, I'll ensure my father pays a visit to Mr. Sun!"

A deep frown creased Huxley's face as a strong impulse to strike Garrett down surged within him. But he controlled himself.

He acknowledged that Garrett wasn't bluffing. If Garrett lodged a complaint upon their return, Cillian might genuinely step in to support Garrett.

Considering his own support was markedly weaker than Garrett's, Mr. Sun might indeed surrender him to Cillian!

Concealing his emotions, Huxley responded sternly, "Your boasting means nothing. You're just a coward who relies on your father's influence! Garrett, your true abilities will be exposed in our imminent match!"

The battle was on the brink of commencement.

Rodney's team harbored no confidence in Liam, dismissing him without observation as a mere low-tier Primogem Warrior.

Only Laura knew the true extent of Liam's formidable capabilities. Given Liam's prowess, securing victory in this second round would be easy.
