

Chapter 1095 An Unexpected Twist

Despite the battle commencing, Garrett's arrogance persisted. He gazed disdainfully at Huxley, wearing a smug grin as he exclaimed, "Let's eliminate that weakling Kolton first, and then, we can determine the true victor of this duel!"

Despite being irritated by Garrett, Huxley agreed with the plan. After all, Huxley's original intention had been to eliminate Liam first.

A fifth-tier Primogem Warrior such as Liam was nothing more than a bothersome presence on the battlefield.

Without hesitation, Huxley summoned a burst of fire energy in his hands and swiftly directed it towards Liam.

Huxley exuded confidence in his offensive maneuver.

He was convinced that the intense heat from his fire energy could torment Liam.

In Huxley's eyes, Liam was simply an unfortunate pawn destined for defeat.

Just as everyone anticipated Liam's imminent destruction from the fiery blast, a dark yellow aura enveloped Liam, completely neutralizing the violent

Chapter 1095 An Unexpected Twist  +120 Points at most fire energy!

This showcased Liam's adeptness in utilizing his special power of the earth element.

Liam's strategy involved targeting Huxley first and then relishing the opportunity to torment Garrett. Huxley's initial aggression played right into Liam's hands.

Notably, following the battle with the Ghost Wolves in the Myriad Beasts Valley, Liam had honed his expertise with the gravitational magnetic field of the Earth element to an exceptional degree.

With a simple gesture, Liam employed the entire gravitational field to exert pressure on Huxley.

Instantly, Huxley experienced the sensation of being crushed by a mountain, every movement becoming a strenuous effort, necessitating all his strength just to take a single step forward.

Overwhelmed by the abrupt onslaught of pressure, Huxley was taken aback and enraged, directing his glare towards Garrett.

He suspected that Garrett had exploited his attack on Liam as an opportunity to ambush him.

"What have you done, Garrett?" Huxley roared furiously.

Garrett was taken aback by Huxley's abrupt scolding, feeling completely perplexed. He couldn't comprehend why Huxley had suddenly halted in his Chapter 1095 An Unexpected Twist  +120 Points at most tracks.

Witnessing Huxley's enraged expression, Garrett even speculated that this might be a strategic maneuver by Huxley to catch him off guard.

Meanwhile, the team leaders among the spectators understood what was happening. They could clearly see that this was Liam's doing with his special power!

Doug and Mateo wore somber expressions, suspecting Rodney of concealing Liam's true skills and possibly reserving Liam as a hidden ace for a strategic move.

Little did they know, Rodney was even more stunned than they were.

"Kolton", known for his fourth-tier prowess, now exhibited abilities akin to those of a sixth-tier Primogem Warrior!

Additionally, Liam's unlocked special power was among the most challenging to master.

Nonetheless, Liam's expertise in harnessing the Earth element's special power was remarkably adept!

What was happening?

Rodney was really confused.

Amidst the astonishment of everyone present, Liam took action once more.

His movements were ethereal, akin to a ghost, as he

Chapter 1095 An Unexpected Twist 🎁 +120 Points at most gracefully navigated over the leaf, leaving a trail of blurred afterimages. He materialized behind Huxley in an instant.

Without delay, Liam unleashed a forceful strike, landing a solid blow on Huxley's body.

The impact was overwhelming for Huxley, leaving him unable to defend against it. Helpless to retaliate, he was propelled through the air by the sheer force of Liam's punch!

The crowd hadn't foreseen that in the second round of combat, the initial elimination would be Huxley, the last expected to be defeated early in the match!