

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3108-“Please move out of the way, or I will ask security to pull you away.” Kathryn said it seriously.

It was impossible for them to lie on her body and purge herself of blood.

Not to mention that Kathryn was not their biological child; even if she were, she would not be regarded as their vampire.

“Kathryn, you can’t be so heartless. My mother is also your adoptive mother. She raised you. You and your family should give our family some support.”

Kathryn asked back, “Has your family paid child support to my family? My family spent more money and effort to raise Shiloh to adulthood. If the two families settle the expenses of raising a child, you will have to pay a large amount of money.

Also, don’t forget that the person who exchanged me and Shiloh was your biological father. Your biological father made a big mistake. Who can you blame? If you want to blame, blame your family for your ambition!”

They want their biological daughter to become the successor of the Farrell and take over the Farrell in the future. They would then tell the truth to manipulate Shiloh and get more from Farrell.

What a big game of chess!

Kathryn felt that her old lady was smart and cruel, but she fell into the hands of the previous butler.

She didn’t know what to say about her biological mother. Shiloh looked nothing like anyone in the Farrell. Didn’t they have any suspicion?

“I’ll count to three. If you don’t leave, I’ll call security.” Kathryn said that and started counting.

“Kathryn, I’m sorry; we shouldn’t bother you.” The adoptive mother knew that there would be no money. She didn’t want to come, but her two sons insisted on her coming. Now they should be worried.

Since Kathryn was a teenager, it has been difficult for them to control her.

It was impossible to control Kathryn before, let alone now.

Kathryn was right. It was their family's fault. They were the ones who sent Kathryn to live a difficult life with their family.

It was their family that made the big mistake.

How could they have the dignity to come to Kathryn to ask for money, and what qualifications did she have to let Kathryn support her in her old age?

The adoptive mother apologized to Kathryn, then pulled her two sons aside and stopped blocking her way.

The company's door was opened long ago.

The security guard saw that Kathryn was still talking to those people, so he kept waiting.

When they gave way, Kathryn stepped on the accelerator and drove into the company.

The company door quickly closed.

The mother and son watched Kathryn's car drive into Farrell's Group and stopped at the entrance of the office building. They watched Kathryn get out of the car and go straight into the office building. Soon, they could no longer see Kathryn's face.

"Mom, are you leaving like this?" The eldest son still asked his mother reluctantly.

The adoptive mother said, "What if we don't do this? She is now Kathryn, the young master of the Farrell, and will be the head of the Farrell in the future. We no longer tolerate the bullying and manipulation of her as a little girl."

If they had known that Kathryn was so cruel, they should have strangled her to death.

In that case, maybe Shiloh could stay in Farrell forever.

At that time, the couple had the idea of strangling Kathryn to death. Thinking of strangling Kathryn to death, they told others that Kathryn died of illness.

However, Matriarch Farrell was aware that Shiloh and Kathryn were born on the same day, so she would periodically inquire about the child, stating that since they were born on the same day and in the same hospital, they were destined to be together.
