

Married At First Sight Chapter 3343

Married At First Sight Chapter 3343-The maid invited Bianca into the house.

She walked a few steps quickly, walked to Audrey, who was sitting on the sofa, and said respectfully, "Madam, Miss Bianca is here. She said she was looking for Mr. Silver Fox."

The silver fox turned around and waved to Bianca: "Cute baby, we're here."

Audrey didn't know that Silver Fox had called the cute baby over.

When Silver Fox was greeting the cute baby, Audrey looked over and saw a young girl, who should be a year or two younger than Elisa. She was dressed in simple clothes but had an outstanding temperament. She looked a little timid. When she walked over, she looked. She thought she was very confident.

In short, the first impression of the cute baby on Audrey was that of a complex contradiction.

Audrey didn't know whether Bianca was Silver Fox's granddaughter or apprentice, and she couldn't make random guesses, but whether Bianca was a granddaughter or apprentice, she couldn't be a timid and useless person.

She might pretend to be a pig and eat the tiger.

How could the people taught by these old seniors be timid and afraid of getting into trouble?

Bianca came over.

Silver Fox introduced everyone in the Stone family to her.

The cute baby politely greeted Audrey and others.

After she said hello, Ezequiel (Silver Fox) said to Audrey, "Audrey, this is one of my many disciples, called Bianca. He is twenty-six years old. This child is a little naive and looks a little timid because of everyone's favor."

Audrey nodded and smiled at Bianca.

Silver Fox didn't say his apprentice's name, so everyone could only call her a cute baby.

Elisa always wanted to laugh when she heard the cute baby's name, but she couldn't. It would be too rude to laugh.

Fortunately, the cute baby didn't have a baby face. If she had a baby face, hearing her name and looking at her face, others would really think of her as a cute baby—the kind of cute baby that looked like a child.

Bianca said hello to the old miracle doctor and others again. Several elderly people looked at her with kindness. Just by looking at her, Audrey and others knew that the cute baby was very favored.

Bianca said she was Silver Fox's apprentice, but in fact, she was also the apprentice of those old people. She studied a lot of things and learned everything.

It's not just her; it's probably the same for everyone else. Who knows? A few old guys often get together and like to give pointers to the juniors.

For other people's apprentices, the most outstanding thing was their own master's ability, but that is not the case for Bianca. She had learned the same skills from every family. Just looking at her ability, it was really hard to tell whose apprentice she was.

Silver Fox always said that his apprentice belongs to everyone.

"Where's the old man?" Bianca saw a few old guys there, but not the old man, who was the loyal uncle, in Audrey's words.

Uncle Jimenez never said his name in front of the juniors.

As a result, the juniors he watched grow up didn't know his name. Several old friends respected his decision, but he didn't want to say it, and they never said his name.

Therefore, the younger generation all called Uncle Jimenez 'Old Man' because he was the oldest of several elderly people.

"Your old man is still resting. He hasn't slept well in the past few days. He came here early in the morning. He was exhausted, not in good health, and had great mood swings. He took the medicine given by your miracle doctor, and let him have a good rest."

The silver fox answered Bianca's question.

Bianca asked with concern, "Is the old man okay?"

The silver fox: "It's nothing serious. He was just very excited."

Bianca felt relieved.
