

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3365-Kathryn met Marco, who had just come out of the elevator.

Both brother and sister stopped.

Marco walked out of the elevator first, and Kathryn was not in a hurry to get in.

“Kathryn, do you want to go out?”

Marco was holding a folder in his hand; maybe there was a document that needed Kathryn’s signature.

Clarissa was not in the company, so all the important seals were given to Kathryn for safekeeping.

Many important documents needed Kathryn’s signature and seal before they became effective.

In the past, he would ask his secretary to make the trip to sign documents, but he seldom came in person.

Kathryn hummed calmly and said, “I have to go out for something, brother; what’s the matter?”

She glanced at the folder in Marco’s hand.

Marco did not hand over the folder and said, “There is a document that needs your signature and seal.”

“Can you go out later? What for? Are you in a hurry?” Marco asked gently.

There was a hint of tentativeness in his words.

The whereabouts of this younger sister, Kathryn, were a mystery, and it was difficult for the three brothers to find out unless she went to discuss business with clients.

It wasn’t that they hadn’t sent people to follow her.

They would soon be dumped and blamed by Kathryn. Then Kathryn would go to Clarissa to complain, and they would be scolded by Clarissa too.

Assistant Pedro Fraser, who worked for Kathryn, was just as capable as the assistant who worked for Clarissa.

“It’s just a little thing. I’ll sign and stamp it for you first.”

Kathryn didn’t tell Marco what she was going to do. She turned and walked back toward her office.

Marco stood there in silence for a moment before he walked away, quickly catching up with Kathryn.

Neither the brother nor the sister spoke.

The secretary saw the two people and greeted them respectfully.

When the two entered the office, the secretary muttered, “Manager Janzen is very friendly to Vice President Farrell. The brother and sister always talk and laugh when they walk together.”

The previous vice president, Farrell, referred to Shiloh.

After the two entered the office, Kathryn naturally sat back in her office seat and then waited for Marco to come over and hand her the folder in his hand.

She took the folder, opened it, and looked at the documents inside.

“Kathryn, did mom say when she’d be back?” Marco asked gently.

Kathryn said, “Mom didn’t say when she would be back, and she probably won’t tell us in real time. Mom doesn’t like people knowing her real whereabouts.”

Marco hummed, then sighed and said, “For the matter between me and your sister-in-law, I still need your mom to come back and ask my mother-in-law for mercy. I have done many things that are sorry to your sister-in-law. For the sake of the children, I don’t want to get a divorce.”

Kathryn didn’t even raise her head and asked pointedly, “Brother, you are reluctant to give your property to your sister-in-law, right? Sister-in-law has tolerated your cheating and has chosen to forgive you, but you shouldn’t have gotten involved with Shiloh. Although Shiloh is not your biological sister, she grew up with you, and you have always treated her as your sister. Before I came back, my sisters-in-law also regarded her as their only sister-in-law and treated her better than their own sisters.

Brother, you got together with Shiloh and were caught by my sister-in-law. You also helped Shiloh beat up my sister-in-law. No one can tolerate this. Brother, you also have a daughter. If your daughter encounters something like my sister-in-law in the future, will you feel sorry for her? I think you must be furious and want to tear your son-in-law apart. Similarly, my sister-in-law was also born and raised by her parents, and she also has brothers and sisters. Her relatives will feel sorry for her, will be angry, and will want to tear you apart.”
