

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3366-Marco had no feelings for Erika, but they used to have a very good relationship and had a son and a daughter. He treated his children very well and loved his daughter the most.

When he found out that Shiloh was not his biological sister and that Kathryn seemed weak and incompetent after her return, Marco was overjoyed and hoped that his mom would pass the position of head of the family to his daughter.

Although his daughter didn't seem to have any abilities, she was still young and underage. As long as her mom was willing to train her granddaughter as a successor, she wouldn't be too bad. Therefore, he loved his daughter very much.

After hearing Kathryn's question, Marco opened his mouth and wanted to explain himself, but found that he could not argue, so he had to remain silent.

After reading the document, Kathryn felt that there was no problem, so she made a voice call to her mom and told her that the document involved matters related to the project. She would only sign after obtaining her mom's consent to avoid being set up by them and having her mom come back to settle the score.

"Mom, my eldest brother is here. He just asked me when you would be back. Is there anything I want to say to him?"

Kathryn asked Clarissa, and without waiting for her answer, she handed the phone to Marco.

Marco suddenly felt a little nervous. After making a big mistake, he was more afraid of Clarissa than before.

Shiloh would not have died if Clarissa had not given up on her.

Clarissa gave up on her beloved daughter. Marco realized that, as a child, their status in her heart could not compare to the inheritance of the Farrell family.

Everything about the Farrell family was more important than the three brothers.

He wanted to not answer the phone, but since Kathryn had said so, he didn't dare not answer it. He had to quickly grab the phone, put on a smile on his face, and call "Mom" in a flattering manner.

"Is there anything you want to tell Mom?"

The voice of Clarissa was cold. She was very disappointed with Marco.

She could understand that Marco loved Shiloh, but she couldn't accept that the eldest son later got together with Shiloh.

Just like the matter between Holden and Shiloh, it had always been a thorn in her heart.

Holden had become an eunuch; the couple could no longer go back to the past.

"No, I just feel you have been away for a long time, mom. We are all worried about you. When will you come back? My dad also talks about you every day."

Clarissa said coldly, "Marco, you don't have to lie to me. Your dad would rather I wasn't at home. How could he possibly nag me to go back and call me an old witch every day? I believe it."

Marco choked.

After Holden was discharged from the hospital, he moved into the house under his name, and he took care of Holden.

Clarissa didn't allow Holden to live back in the Farrell family mansion.

Although his parents' marriage was saved after Holden castrated himself, they no longer had any love between them.

Holden hated Clarissa very much.

Clarissa was guarding against the four of them, father and son, as if they were thieves.

How could such a good family become so broken today?

Marco glared at Kathryn secretly.

It was after Kathryn returned to the Farrell family that their originally harmonious family changed.

It was all because of this woman!

If he hadn't been incompetent, Marco would have wanted Kathryn to die.

F*ck my own sister; is there such a sister?

She was a plague and a jinx who had brought disaster to their family.

After Holden was discharged from the hospital, he secretly cursed Clarissa every day, calling her an old w!tch, saying that she was too cruel and vicious, and that she would get her retribution sooner or later.

But Marco couldn't say such words.
