

Married At First Sight Chapter 3382

Married At First Sight Chapter 3382-On the surface, it was Shiloh's biological mom and brother who forced her to die, but in fact, it was Clarissa and the others who forced her to die.

Holden knew it very well, but he had no way to seek justice for Shiloh.

He himself was like an ant on Clarissa's chopping board, at the mercy of others.

"Not only was Shiloh used by your mom, but she was also forced to die by them. Your mom, Kathryn, and Liberty came from Wiltspoon, right? It was them and your wife. They all can't stand to see Shiloh get better. They forced my daughter to die."

Holden choked up.

"dad." Marco also felt uncomfortable.

His feelings towards Shiloh were a bit complicated.

In the past, it was the feeling of a brother towards his sister, but later it was the feeling of a man towards a woman.

"Dad, don't do this. If someone takes a picture of us and tells my mom about it, we won't end up well."

Although this was a villa under Marco's name, Marco couldn't guarantee that no one would take secret photos.

For example, the last time he brought Shiloh to live in the wedding house where he and Erika got married, someone took photos of them. He gave the photos to Erika, leading her to run away and make a big fuss.

Holden quickly turned his face away and raised his hand to wipe his eyes.

"Well, let's not talk about Shiloh. I get sad when I mention her. I'm useless. I can't seek justice for Shiloh for the time being. You three brothers should be more determined. If you can't do anything to your mom and Kathryn, can't you vent your anger on Liberty?"

Marco wanted to say that he had vented his anger, but he failed.

The two younger brothers came over, and the conversation between the father and sons stopped temporarily.

"Dad, big brother."

Noel and Sage also bought some things.

There were food and drinks, as well as gifts for their old father, Holden.

The three brothers all knew that their father castrated himself in order to save his marriage. As men and father and son, they obviously stand on their father's side.

They sympathized with and felt sorry for their father, but they couldn't let him know it openly. In fact, they knew that their father was like an eunuch now, and they were afraid of hurting his self-esteem. So they used other ways to make their old father happy.

Holden said, "I asked you to come back for hot pot. Everyone brought a lot of things. I live with your eldest brother. He has no worries about food or clothing. He doesn't lack anything. You can come over later. There's no need to buy so many things. If you have money, just give me some."

He was old and disabled.

Things would change in the Farrell family sooner or later.

Holden wanted to save some money from his sons for his retirement. If the Farrell family changes, his sons may not have a good ending.

Even if they don't seek death, once the Farrell Group changes hands, they will be driven out of the Farrell Group if they don't have much ability. Then, it will be difficult for them to make as much money as they do now.

But they spend money like water and have long developed the habit of spending lavishly.

It would fail quickly.

He would take whatever money he could.

Who told him to be dominated by his wife for the past few decades and not have much money?

In recent years, his children have given him money.

He lived a carefree life, but after being caught cheating, his wife cut off his financial resources again.

He didn't allow his children to give him too much money. He doesn't even have a thousand dollars in cash on him now. There was no money in the bank either.
