

An Understated Dominance

Chapter 2427

Kassidy's attack was fast, but Rivka's reaction was equally fast. At the moment when the two scimitars came, Kassidy's sword had already been stabbed out.

"Wind-breaking Style!"

Rivka's long sword shook violently, and a sword shadow suddenly appeared out of thin air.

The sword shadow was like a gust of wind, with bursts of sharp whistles impacting on Kassidy's double swords.

"Clang clang clang..."

The sound of metal colliding swiftly halted Kassidy's attack with her double swords, and Rivka, her sword shadow shattered, slashed directly into Kassidy's chest and abdomen.

Because of the cover of the sword shadow, this sword was silent and unnoticed.

It didn't seem to have much lethality, but it concealed endless dangers.

"Kassidy, be careful!"

In the audience, Noemi's face changed. She discovered that Rivka possessed not only exceptional swordsmanship but also vast combat experience.

In an illusory move, she transitioned from defense to offense and assumed the dominant position.

"Hmm?"

Kassidy's pupils shrank.

Without Noemi's reminder, she had already reacted instinctively.

She leaned back suddenly, crossed her two swords in front of her chest, and narrowly avoided the sword.

"Swish!"

There was a sharp metal friction sound, and Rivka's sword passed in front of her, sticking to Cassidy's blade.

The blades rubbed against each other frantically, splashing a series of sparks.

Then, Cassidy's two swords clamped Rivka's sword like scissors, and then she twisted her body and kicked Rivka's lower abdomen.

As the daughter of the Guildmaster of the Celestial Alliance, she had learned a lot. Not only was her swordsmanship amazing, but her fists and feet were also very powerful.

She had integrated the strengths of hundreds of schools and possessed no weaknesses.

Even if she abandoned the sword, she was confident that she could defeat the enemy with her fists and feet.

"Bang!"

When Cassidy kicked, Rivka also raised her foot and kicked up.

The soles of the feet on both sides collided heavily, making a dull sound, and then they separated at the touch and retreated several steps.

After a few simple moves of attack and defense, neither of them gained any advantage.

"The disciples of the Sword Union are truly extraordinary. Next, I will let you experience the unique skills of our celestial alliance!"

Kassidy spoke, and the handles of the two swords abruptly collided and twisted.

With two "clicks," the handles of the two scimitars were connected together, turning into a strange "S"-shaped weapon.

"Watch this!"

With her right hand, Cassidy grabbed the handle and threw it at Rivka.

"Swoosh..."

The "S"-shaped weapon spun wildly, creating afterimages in the air, and slashed towards Rivka with incredible speed.
